HARRY REDKNAPP

THE MANAGER

It was important that we preserved our five-point lead over Chelsea in the Premier League following Saturday's game at Stamford Bridge.

It was a big point for us and keeps us in a decent position as far as Champions League places go.

I thought we had some good chances to take all three points in the end but their goalkeeper made a couple of great saves to keep them in the game.

Our performance was excellent, we defended well and I was really pleased with the way we kept the ball. The longer the game went on, the more we looked as though we could win. In the end, I think they were probably more pleased to hear the final whistle than we were.

A couple of results haven't gone our way recently but the players have remained bright in training and the performances have been good, we just haven't got the breaks.

Even when we played Stoke last week, it was a tough evening but I couldn't fault the effort. We had some good chances but once we hit the cross bar from Gareth Bale's effort, I wondered if we were going to score at all so I was pleased we kept going and managed to get the equaliser late on.

It may not be the result that we all wanted but that might just prove a valuable point come the end of the campaign.

Our focus is back on the FA Cup tonight and I am sure you will all join me in offering a warm welcome back to White Hart Lane to everyone from Bolton Wanderers.

I have spoken to Owen Coyle pretty much every day following the events of 10 days ago and it is just great to hear of Fabrice Muamba's progress.

We all know he has a long road ahead but from where he was last Saturday to where we are now, it is just a miracle how much he has improved and we continue to send our best wishes to him and his family.

Hopefully we can all move on now and he can continue to improve.

This is a big game tonight and it is one we want to win. I want us to achieve Champions League football at the end of this season but I also want us to win a cup, they are our aims and I believe we have the quality to achieve both.

I would like to conclude my programme notes by sending my best wishes to our young Academy player Oliver Modeste and his family. We were all shocked to hear of Oliver's accidental fall a fortnight ago but I am pleased to hear he is improving on a daily basis and has now been transferred from intensive care. We all hope that he continues to get better.

Enjoy the game.

SPURS HEADING STATESIDE AGAIN

We are delighted to confirm that the First Team squad will travel to the United States of America as part of a pre-season training camp ahead of the 2012-13 campaign.

On Tuesday, July 24, we will take on 2011 MLS Cup winners LA Galaxy at the Home Depot Center, and come up against former captain Robbie Keane as well as David Beckham, who spent time training with us at Spurs Lodge last year.

The tour fixture schedule concludes with a return to the Red Bull Arena where we face New York Red Bulls on Tuesday, July 31. The venue hosted two games during our summer tour of 2010 where we participated in the New York Football Challenge, playing games against the Red Bulls and Sporting Lisbon.

On announcing the tour, our Chairman Daniel Levy said: "We are delighted to be heading back to the USA ahead of the 2012-13 season. We enjoyed a successful tour in 2010 and are looking forward to the opportunity to play against the LA Galaxy and New York Red Bulls, two of the leading franchises in MLS."

"The Club is proud of its reputation for playing entertaining football and we believe this attacking style is responsible for the significant rise in the number of fans across the USA in recent years. This tour presents us with a great opportunity to give something back to those fans and also introduce new supporters to the Spurs way of playing football."

Commenting on the announcement, manager Harry Redknapp said: "The facilities will be first class and the opposition will provide a great test for the squad. We know how good the MLS sides are from two summers ago when we faced San Jose Earthquakes and New York Red Bulls. We can expect another tough encounter when we face the Red Bulls again this time.

"Playing the winners of the MLS Cup in LA Galaxy will provide a real challenge too - any team that includes proven international performers like Robbie Keane, Landon Donovan and David Beckham are sure to be top drawer."

"I have fantastic memories of America from my days playing at Seattle Sounders and, more recently, our last visit there two years ago."

Keep an eye on our website for the latest ticket information on our tour.

HOTSPUR – APRIL

The April issue of our monthly magazine Hotspur goes on sale this Friday and features an exclusive lead interview with striker Louis Saha.

Louis is featured in a special photoshoot at Spurs Lodge and reveals how optimistic he is about the future following his arrival at White Hart Lane. And one lucky reader will win a pair of Saha's signed match boots in our regular free-to-enter competition.

Other players featured include Brad Friedel, Ledley King, Rafael van der Vaart, Scott Parker, Gareth Bale, Ryan Nelsen and Younes Kaboul.

We also catch up with former players Ossie Ardiles, Anthony Gardner, Milija Aleksic - and Terry Naylor who is now a singer on the North London pub circuit!

It's all in the latest Hotspur – don't miss it.

CUP GLORY FOR GIRLS

The Tottenham Hotspur Ladies Under-12s picked up silverware recently by winning the London FA County Cup Final, beating Enfield Town Ladies in a dramatic game decided on a penalty shoot out.

In front of at least 200 supporters at Harlow Town FC, our youngsters took the lead in the 15th minute when Charlotte Priest rose above the Enfield defenders to head home a Gemma Biggadike corner. Enfield equalised halfway through the second half and despite plenty of chances for both sides, it ended 1-1.

In the first period of extra time, we regained the lead with a second goal from Charlotte, who scored from a tight angle. But Enfield equalised with the last kick of the game to send the final to penalties.

After five spot-kicks each the teams were still level and it was left to player of the match Charlotte to convert the winning penalty in sudden death. Captain Gemma lead the team up the steps to collect the trophy.

Manager Ian Biggadike said: "I am so proud of the girls, who all put in a magnificent display on the day."

BLUES AWAIT AT WEMBLEY

The winners of our FA Cup quarter-final tie against Bolton will face a Wembley showdown against Chelsea following last weekend's draw.

The game will be played at Wembley Stadium on Sunday, April 15, kick off time to be confirmed. In the other semi-final, Liverpool will face either Everton or Sunderland – who replay tonight after a 1-1 draw at Goodison Park – on Saturday, April 14.

Having been drawn against Bolton in this round, it means our Premier League match against Wanderers, scheduled for Sunday, April 15, has been postponed. A new date will be announced in due course.

RAFA'S MIXED EMOTIONS

Despite being pleased to have earned a point at Chelsea on Saturday, Rafael van der Vaart believes the team deserved all three.

Our Dutch midfielder almost opened the scoring twice at the end of the first half, with Petr Cech making a good stop from a close range effort before Ashley Cole blocked the follow up attempt.

Regardless of the missed opportunities – Emmanuel Adebayor and Gareth Bale also went very close to scoring in the second half - the team battled superbly to earn a point at a ground that has been notoriously difficult for us in the Premier League era.

"We had a few great chances - including me twice - and I was disappointed, but that's life as a football player; sometimes you miss. When the ball was on my left foot it was much easier and I tried to smash it. It's a pity," said Rafa after the match.

"I think we played well, we kept the ball well, and I think we deserved more than a draw.

"But a point gives us confidence for the next few games, especially to have earned it away from home against a big team. We did well."

FOOTBALL UNITED

A THANK YOU FROM BOLTON WANDERERS MANAGER OWEN COYLE

On behalf of everyone at Bolton Wanderers and our supporters, I would like to offer our sincere thanks to Tottenham Hotspur - the staff, players, management and fans - for their support for Fabrice and his family at this difficult time. We have been truly humbled by the care and concern shown by you all for Fabrice.

Harry has been in touch regularly to check on Fabrice's progress and Spurs chairman Daniel Levy has been in regular contact with our chairman Phil Gartside. The family have appreciated the many messages of support from Spurs fans.

Tottenham's club doctor Shabaaz

Mughal, the medical team and paramedics in attendance at White Hart Lane last Saturday played a vital part in giving Fabrice the best possible chance after his cardiac arrest, and I would like to thank them all.

I would like to ask you to keep Fabrice and his family in your thoughts and prayers as he continues his recovery.

He has a long road ahead of him and the messages of support have been a great source of strength and energy for everybody.

Thank you all,

Owen Coyle

"HARRY HAS BEEN IN TOUCH REGULARLY TO CHECK ON FABRICE'S PROGRESS AND SPURS CHAIRMAN DANIEL LEVY HAS BEEN IN REGULAR CONTACT"

MESSAGE ON BEHALF OF SHAUNA MAGUNDA AND MARCEL MUAMBA

We would like to firstly thank God for answering our prayers.

Thank you to everyone for the love, prayers and support over the past few days. In particular we owe an enormous gratitude to the Bolton and Spurs medical teams for their quick reaction on Saturday, and the fantastic team at The London Chest Hospital.

We have been overwhelmed by all the kind messages we have received. The support we have had from the fans, not just from Bolton but football supporters around the world, has given us so much strength. We have been particularly touched by the support from the football community globally.

Thanks also to our family and close friends and thank you to the media for respecting our privacy during this very difficult time.

Even though Fabrice has made great progress over the last couple of days, he is still in intensive care, and still has a long period of recovery ahead. He has asked that you please keep him in your prayers.

SUPPORTING A HEALTHIER WISER FUTURE...

The football family has come together and been fantastic in its support for Fabrice Muamba. Ahead of tonight's rescheduled match, we've been working with Bolton Wanderers on a number of initiatives to raise awareness and funds for those charities and organisations whose work helped Fabrice last weekend and are working in the area of heart research/treatment.

As part of this, the match shirts worn by both teams at tonight's FA Cup tie at White Hart Lane will be signed by the respective player and auctioned via the Tottenham Hotspur ebay site.

For your chance to get obtain one of these shirts, please make sure you visit the website or keep an eye out across our official Facebook and Twitter sites after the match.

All funds raised will be distributed equally between The London Chest Hospital and the London Ambulance Service along with the British Heart Foundation, Pan African Heart Foundation and C.R.Y. (Cardiac Risk in the Young). Great bids will support these great charities and the important work they do.

In addition, the Club will be donating match LED time to help raise awareness of the following charities:

C.R.Y.

Cardiac Risk in the Young - a charity to raise awareness of conditions that can lead to Young Sudden Cardiac Death and Sudden Death Syndrome - <http://www.c-r-y.org.uk/>

"We are immensely proud of the medical teams at both clubs, cardiologist Dr Deaner, the health and safety team at the stadium, staff at the clubs, hospital and ambulance service - it was a real team effort," said Club Chairman, Daniel Levy.

"The hospital updates in the days that followed regarding Fabrice's steady improvement were particularly uplifting and testament to the great work of all the medical personnel involved.

"Our thanks also to both sets of fans for their support and behaviour. Events such as this put everything into perspective and on that Saturday night, at a time of intense emergency and uncertainty, we saw the true humanity and empathy of the footballing family."

Meanwhile, the Tottenham Hotspur Supporters' Trust have shown their support by also making a donation to C.R.Y.

Many fans have been asking how they can learn how to give CPR. We'll be using the match programme (see pages 16-17) and our Facebook and Twitter sites to support the British Heart Foundation's campaign, Hands-only CPR. If you're interested in learning how to give CPR, please go to www.bhf.org.uk/handsonlyCPR

We are delighted to welcome back to the Lane this evening Spurs supporter Dr Andrew Deaner, consultant cardiologist at the London Chest Hospital, who ran from the stands to assist the medics treating Fabrice on the pitch 10 days ago and continued to oversee his recovery in the subsequent days. Dr Deaner and his family are guests of the Club in the Boardroom tonight.

SUPPORTERS' REACTION

Like millions of others, Siobhan Pyburn was watching our FA Cup sixth round tie with Bolton Wanderers on TV when the dramatic events unfolded. So touched was she by what she witnessed, the Spurs supporter felt compelled to put her immediate thoughts in a letter to the Club.

I am a Spurs fan. Before that I am a football fan. Before that I am a human being. And never have those layers of identity been so clear, and so relevant as they are now. Let me tell you why.

Around half-time during the Tottenham v Bolton FA quarter-final, which kicked off at 5:30pm this evening, a Bolton player – Fabrice Muamba – collapsed on the pitch. Nobody was near him, there were no warning signs. He just fell.

I was watching the match from home and at that precise moment I was talking to somebody else in the room – not that I would have seen much had I been paying attention; such was Muamba's lack of vicinity to the ball that the camera was nowhere near him. It didn't take long for me – or anyone – to figure out that something serious had happened.

Immediately the whole stadium fell silent, as paramedics rushed to revive the fallen player. Members of both teams were visibly distraught, as were the aghast onlookers. The match was abandoned as Muamba was carried off the pitch.

Within minutes, Muamba was among the most tweeted about topic. Facebook statuses came in by the bucketload. The BBC typed up a quick update on their football news page.

And do you know what? Absolutely everyone that I saw was wishing Muamba back to health, and applauding the referee for the decision to abandon the match. Not one person who had paid money to be there complained about it being called off. Instead, the fans chanted his name as the players left the pitch. Not just the Bolton fans. All the fans. Across the country – no, the world – right now, fans of every club are ignoring their team preferences, because all of that has been trivialised by this shocking event. No one cares about the FA Cup right now. All that matters is that the young man makes it.

I know nothing about the man, he's not a Spurs player – but seeing the world's response has warmed my heart almost beyond words and that is what I want to focus on now.

To all concerned,

I just felt a need to drop a line to you in light of the very high profile situation you had to deal with last Saturday at White Hart Lane, involving the Bolton Wanderers player Fabrice Muamba.

The work that was carried out by your Paramedics was truly outstanding and it seems that, through the tremendous effort put in by everybody, Fabrice appears to be making an unbelievable recovery. Maybe one positive that has come from this situation is that a large section of the UK population has witnessed the outstanding work that is carried out every day in some of the most difficult situations and conditions.

I am not just directing this message to the Paramedics on duty on Saturday in the ground, but also to all of the staff, no forgetting the training, administration and support staff.

Although I am sure you have had many messages from the public, I just felt a need to pass on my thoughts. Thanks for the hard work and I hope I don't see any of you, but if I do, I know I couldn't have a better team there for me, even better than Spurs!

All the best

Stew Collins, Gawcott, Buckingham

FOOTBALL UNITED

Having been brought up following the team from down the road that isn't normally mentioned in these parts without some pretty fruity language attached, I felt particularly shaken as I had watched Muamba playing for Arsenal's youth team when he was just a kid. Everybody knows what the north London rivalry can be like, and to hear the Spurs fans offering such powerful support to a player with Arsenal associations was very meaningful. Again, I can only say thank you.

There have been a few remarks that decency is only to be expected. Nothing special. That football shouldn't be patting itself on the back for people being civilised. But this was a highly unusual set of circumstances. Unless you are in the medical profession, you are not used to seeing somebody fighting for their life in front of your eyes. There were no screens erected around the scene. There was no possibility of onlookers being moved along, nowhere for people to run to if they couldn't bear it. In some ways that made 36,000 people part of it, and it was impossible not to care. The way in which everybody manifested their care was something not many of us will forget.

All the compliments in the world to everybody who was at White Hart Lane and will always be connected to Fabrice's extraordinary story.

MEDIA REACTION

Amy Lawrence has attended and reported on countless football matches in her career as a sports journalist. But the Guardian writer, who was here 10 days ago in a working capacity in our Press Box, has never seen anything like the turn of events that unfolded that night.

It is safe to assume that every single person who attended the initial attempt at this cup tie has spent a reasonable amount of time since thinking about what befell Fabrice Muamba. The shock of seeing a football match suddenly lurch into a nightmare that was so upsetting, so frightening, was not easy to shake off. Even as the encouraging news filtered through about Muamba's miraculous improvements, there were still moments when it was understandable to feel emotional about it all.

This is a message that doesn't come from anyone connected with Tottenham Hotspur, Bolton Wanderers, or the family of Fabrice. This is just a voice from the stands, one of the thousands who were inside White Hart Lane watching on with an overwhelming mixture of panic, helplessness, desolation and the urge for anything and everything that might help.

I would like to say thank you to everybody from both clubs whose actions all contributed to what will hopefully be an uplifting ending to an emergency that looked so bleak.

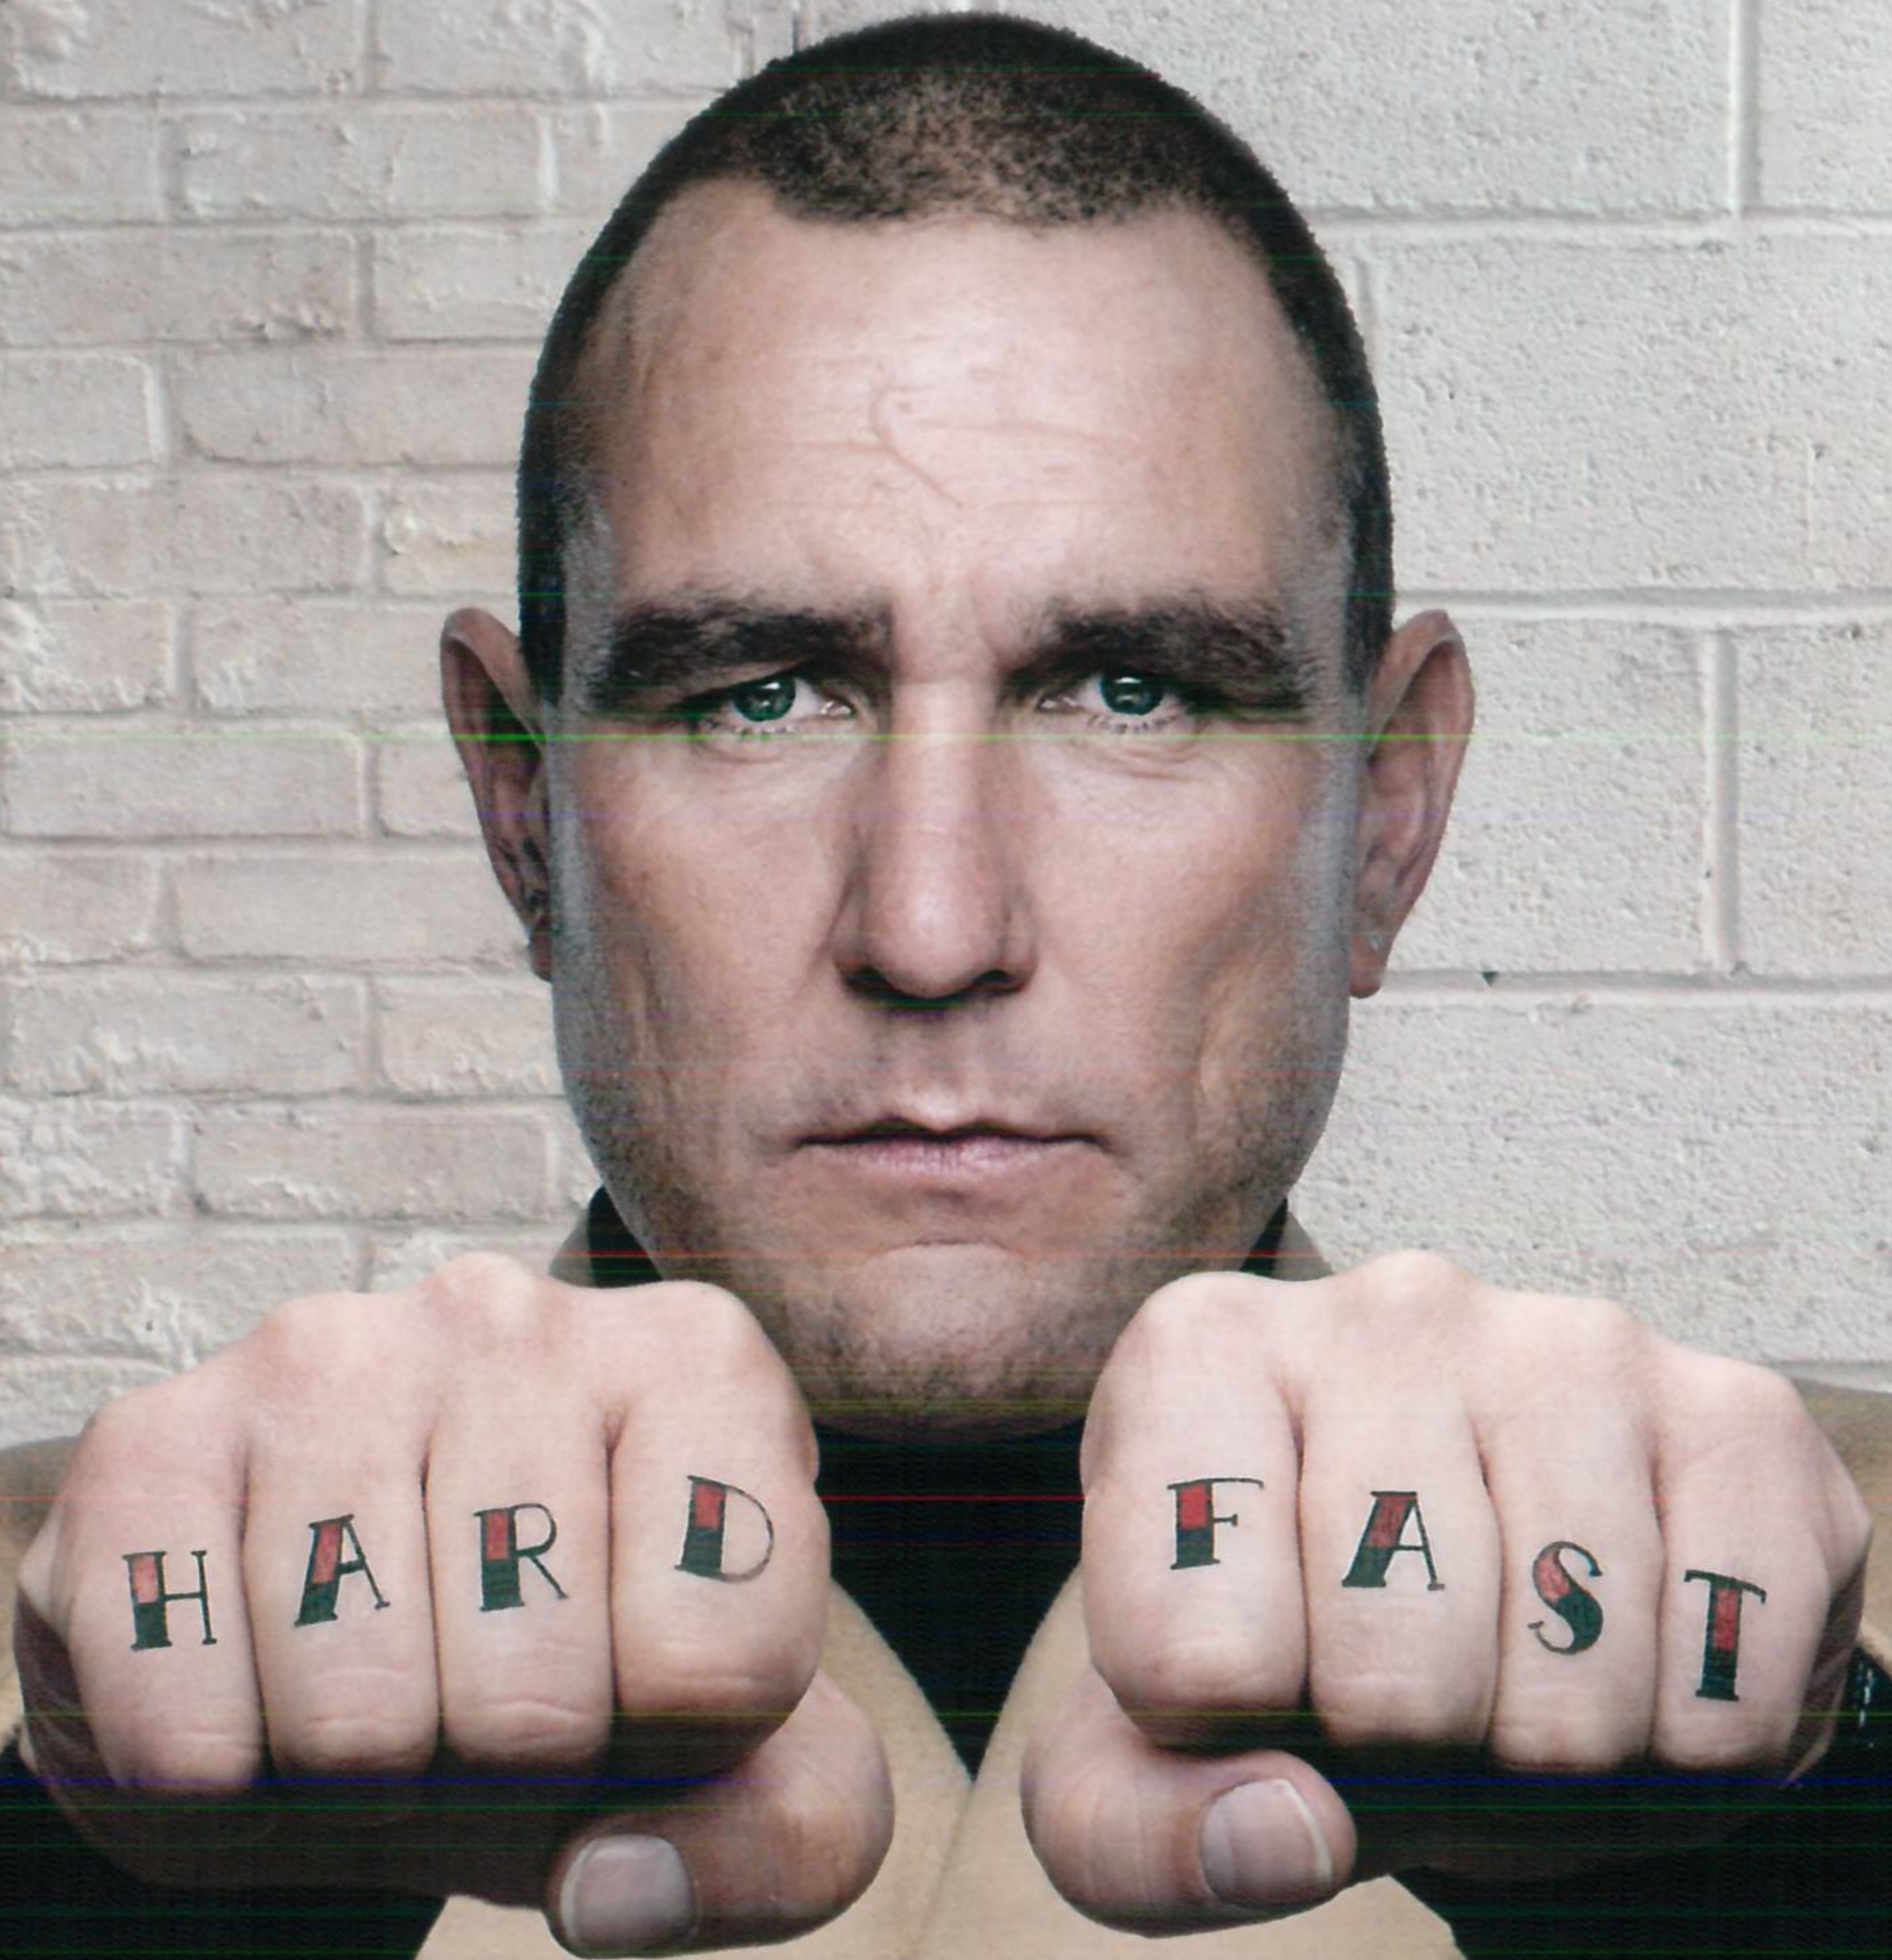

Thank you to all those fans who handled the situation with such touching humanity. Thank you to the medical teams, who responded so brilliantly. Thank you to the players, whose urgency, and reactions, ensured Fabrice was treated as quickly as possible. Thank you to Doctor Andrew Deaner, who ran from the stands with his compulsion to assist. Thank you to the steward who acted on instinct to step in to ensure such an experienced cardiologist could sprint from the East Stand to lend his invaluable expertise, rather than being sent back to his seat. All of you dignified your clubs in a way that is simply immeasurable.

I have an admission to make, too.

THE STORY SO FAR

Ahead of tonight's FA Cup quarter-final, we take another look at how Bolton and ourselves have reached this stage of the competition.

Reaching the FA Cup semi-finals last season, Bolton Wanderers are no strangers to this stage of the competition under their manager Owen Coyle.

They were defeated 5-0 at Wembley by Stoke City last April and while they have bounced back in the competition to stand within 90 minutes of another trip to the famous stadium, their cup run has also provided ample respite from their endeavours in the Premier League.

Currently locked in a relegation battle, by their cup form you wouldn't know it as they continue to march on.

Here, we look back at how the Trotters and ourselves have each reached the quarter-finals of the FA Cup...

FA CUP THIRD ROUND JANUARY 7, 2012 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 3-0 CHELTENHAM TOWN

League 2 outfit Cheltenham met a Spurs team with the proverbial bit between its teeth in the third round. After a successful Christmas period that saw us reinforce our Champions League credentials for 2012-13, Jermain Defoe, Roman Pavlyuchenko and Giovanni Dos Santos were all on the scoresheet to set us on our way in a competition we last won in 1991.
Team: Cudicini, Livermore, Dawson, Bassong, Rose, Lennon (Bostock), Pienaar, Kranjcar, Dos Santos, Defoe (Falque), Pavlyuchenko.

FA CUP THIRD ROUND JANUARY 7, 2012 MACCLESFIELD 2-2 BOLTON WANDERERS

After defeating Chelmsford City to earn the right to play Bolton, the Silkmen came within 13 minutes of a giant killing. Ivan Klasnic had put the Trotters ahead, but Macclesfield replied through Colin Daniel and Arnaud Mendy to go 2-1 ahead. It looked like staying that way before David Wheater's equaliser forced a replay.

Team: Bogdan, Riley, Knight, Wheater, Robinson, Eagles, Pratley (M Davies), Reo-Coker, Petrov, K Davies (Ngog), Klasnic.

FA CUP THIRD ROUND REPLAY JANUARY 17, 2012 BOLTON WANDERERS 2-0 MACCLESFIELD

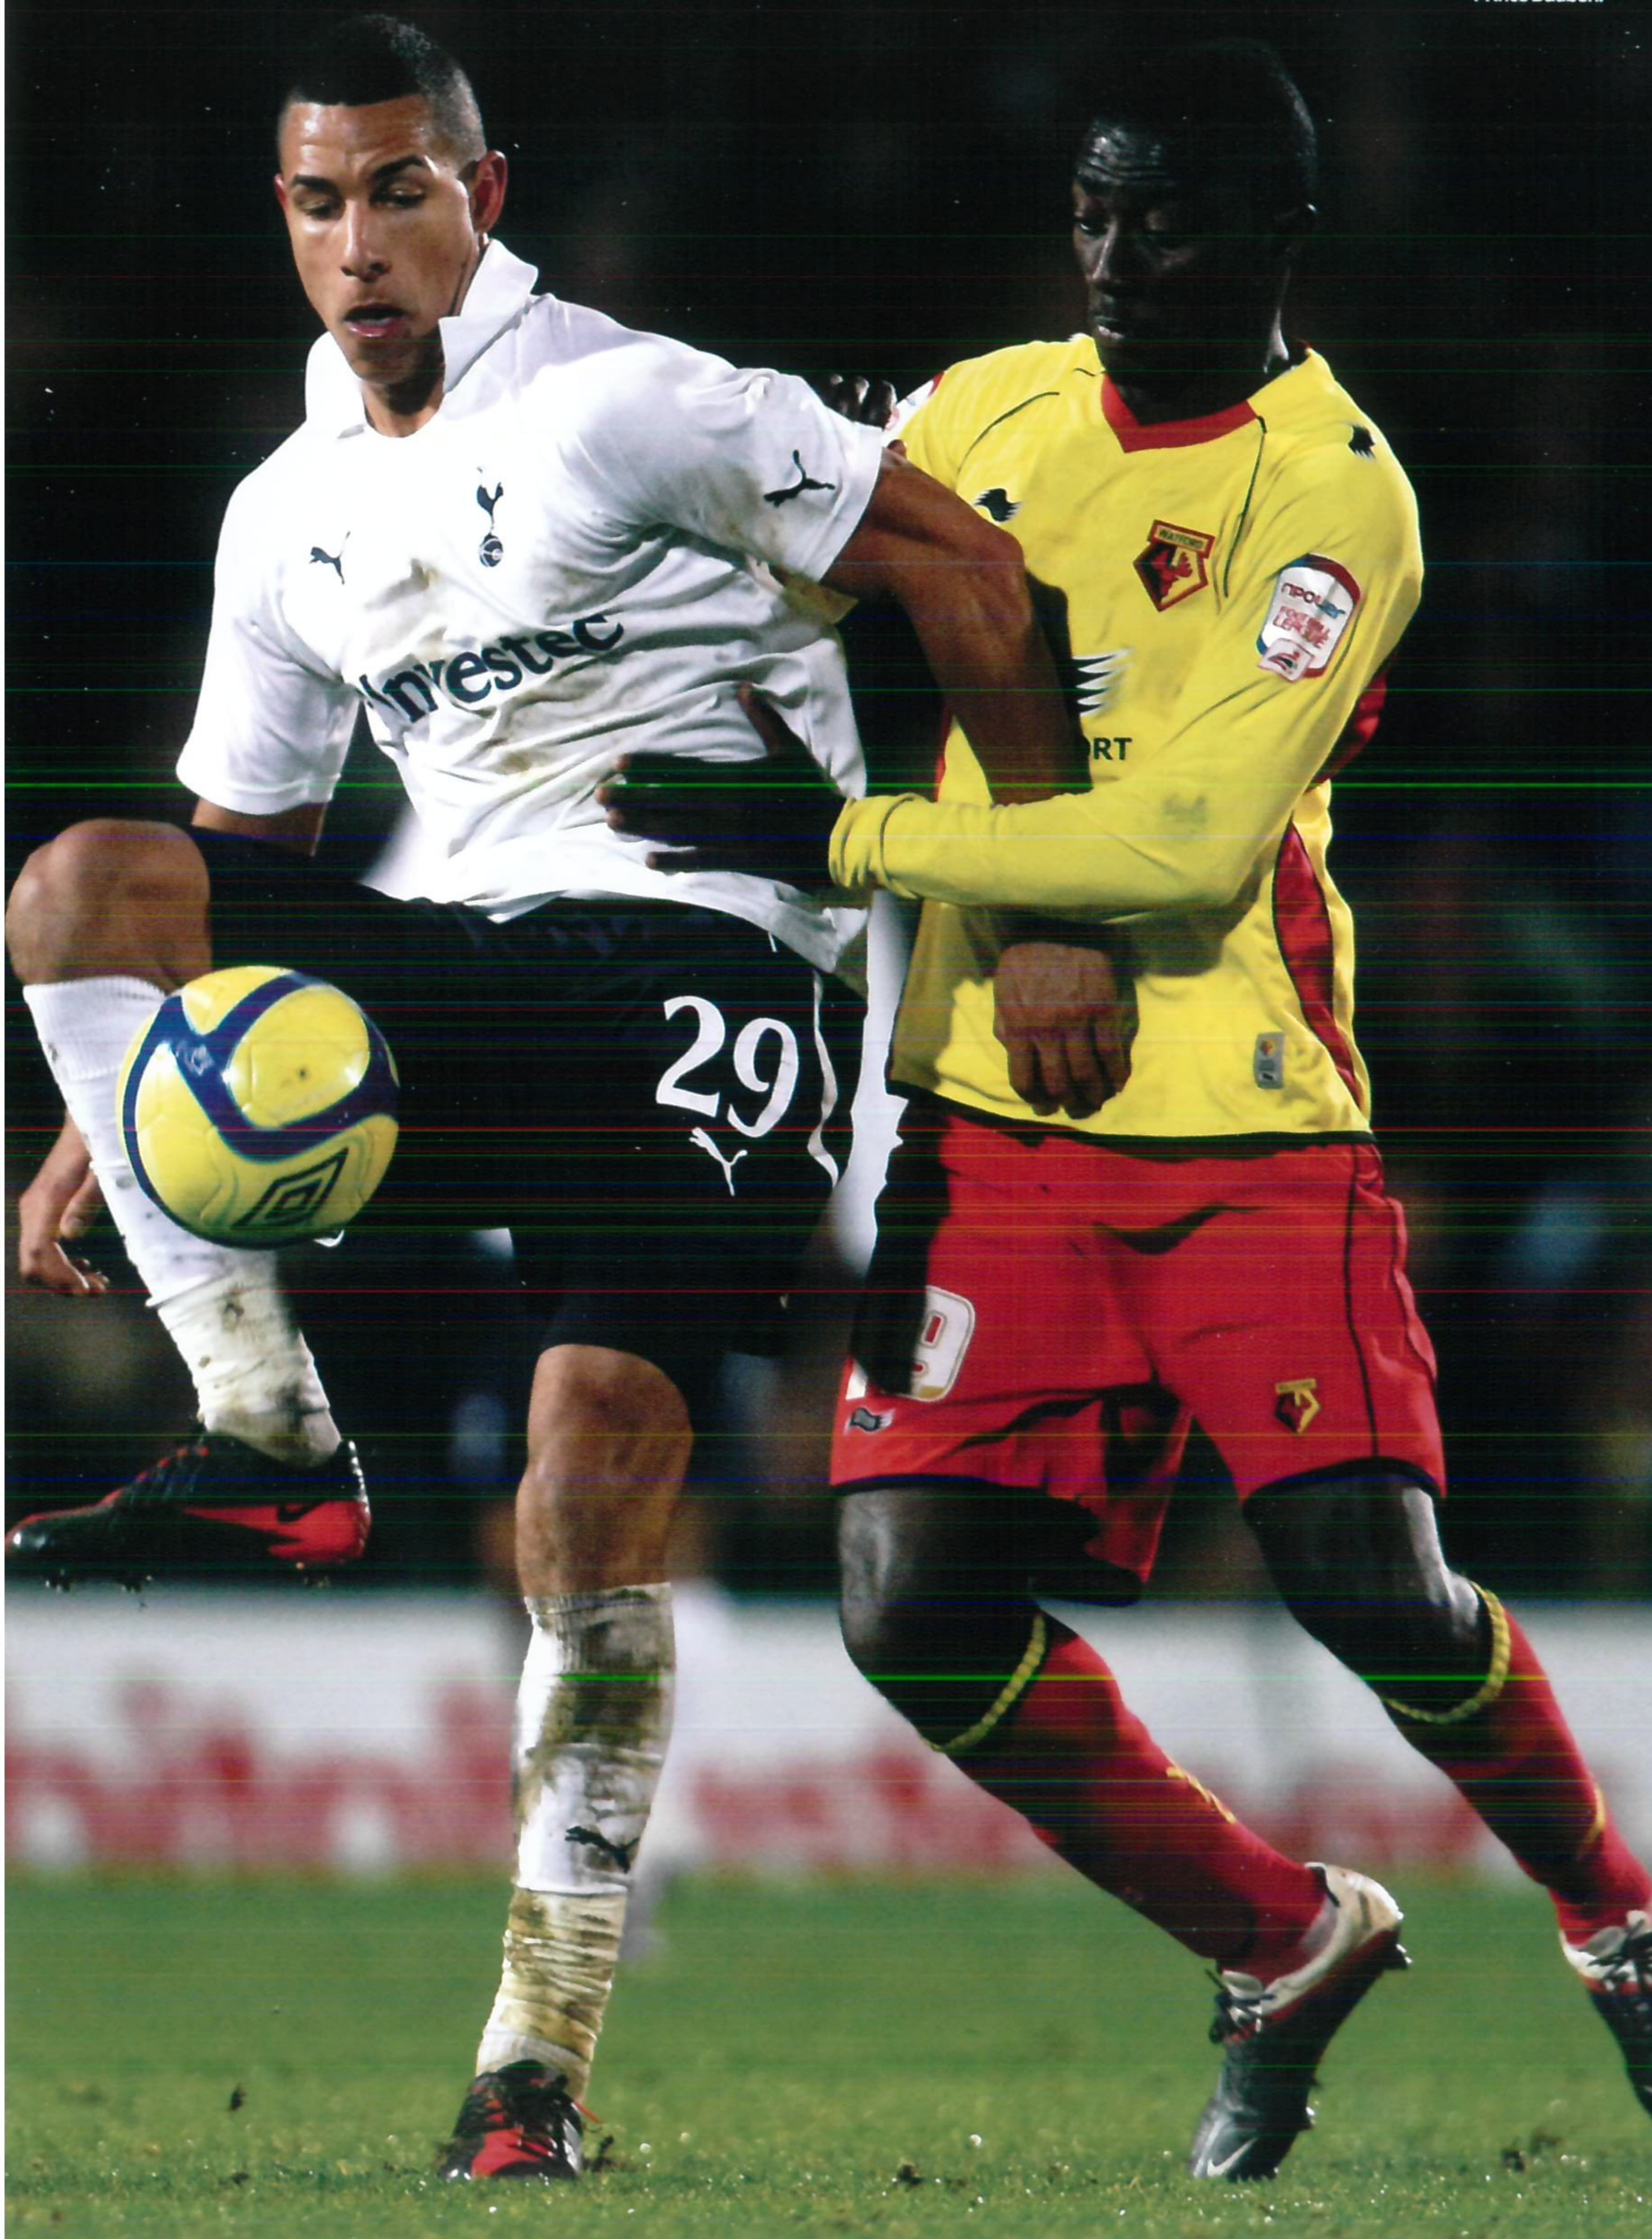

After potentially slipping out of the competition by way of an upset, Bolton atoned for their errors in the replay at the Reebok with a far more accomplished display. Kevin Davies had put them ahead within a minute of kick-off and Martin Petrov added a second midway through the first half.

Team: Bogdan, Riley, Wheater, Boyata, Ricketts (Robinson), Sanli (O'Halloran), M Davies, Reo-Coker, Petrov, K Davies, Klasnic (Ngog).

FA CUP FOURTH ROUND JANUARY 27, 2012 WATFORD 0-1 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

Many a team has come unstuck at Vicarage Road in the FA Cup down the years, but we negotiated safe passage into the fifth round with a controlled, dominant display against the Hornets. In an untraditional Friday night kick-off in the cup, Rafael van der Vaart scored the vital goal just before the interval to book another trip against Hertfordshire opposition in the form of Stevenage.
Team: Cudicini, Walker, Dawson, Kaboul, Rose, van der Vaart, Parker, Livermore, Modric (Lennon), Defoe (Pienaar), Adebayor (Pavlyuchenko).

Jake Livermore holds off Watford's Prince Buaben.

FA CUP FOURTH ROUND

JANUARY 27, 2012

BOLTON WANDERERS 2-1 SWANSEA CITY

One of the Premier League's surprise packages, newly-promoted Swansea City have earned the support of many neutrals this term. Unfortunately for Brendan Rodgers' side, Bolton weren't so forthcoming in the fourth round, eliminating them 2-1. Luke Moore had put the visitors ahead before former Jack Darren Pratley equalised on half-time. Chris Eagles's strike 10 minutes after the break proved the winner.

Team: Bogdan, Riley, Boyata, Wheeler, Ricketts, Eagles (Tuncay), Pratley (Muamba), Reo-Coker, Petrov, M Davies, Ngog (K Davies)

FA CUP FIFTH ROUND

FEBRUARY 19, 2012

STEVENAGE 0-0 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

Ahead of our clash at the Lamex Stadium, Stevenage manager Gary Smith made calls for his players to give a 'good account of themselves against Premier League opposition'. Well, he got all that he wanted as his side held their own against us to earn a replay at White Hart Lane. They rode their luck at times, but a clean sheet proved ample reward for their efforts.

Team: Cudicini, Kaboul, Dawson, Nelsen, Rose (Lennon), Walker (Kranjcar), Parker, Livermore, Bale, Defoe, Saha.

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 3-1 STEVENAGE

Much of the talk had been of Stevenage looking to cause a major upset in our replay at the Lane and the League 2 side almost got their wish. They took the lead after just four minutes when Joel Byrom scored from the penalty spot to put them in dreamland, but a Jermain Defoe brace and a penalty of our own from Emmanuel Adebayor was enough to see off the Boro.

Team: Cudicini, Kaboul, Dawson (Walker), Nelsen, Rose, Lennon (Adebayor), Kranjcar (Livermore), Parker, Bale, van der Vaart, Defoe.

MILLWALL 0-2 BOLTON WANDERERS

They have had their fair share of cup scares this term, but Bolton made light work of Millwall in the lashing rain at The Den. It took just four minutes for loan star Ryo Miyaichi to open the scoring as he expertly curled the ball beyond Steve Mildenhall in goal for the Lions, before David Ngog made sure of the result with his strike in the second half.

Team: Bogdan, Steinsson, Ream, Wheeler, Ricketts, Davies (Pratley), Muamba, Reo-Coker, Miyaichi (Eagles), Ngog, Tuncay.

SEASON REVIEW

WHEN Bolton returned from newly-promoted QPR on the opening day of the season with a 4-0 win – and then more recently completed the double over the Loftus Road club – it served to bring optimism to the Reebok at both ends of the season.

However, with the clubs around them at the bottom of the table showing signs of a resurgence, Bolton's meeting with Blackburn Rovers on Saturday took on added emphasis.

Bolton's game in hand could prove crucial but, before the weekend, they were in the bottom three – two points behind Rangers and one better off than Wigan and Wolves.

There is no doubt that Owen Coyle's men have work to do but they have the quality to survive. And if it comes down to courage then that is a quality that Bolton have never lacked.

MANAGER

OWEN COYLE

ALTHOUGH he cut his managerial teeth in the SPL with Falkirk and St Johnstone it was Owen Coyle's two-year stint at Burnley that caught the attention of the English football fraternity. He arrived in the Turf Moor hot seat in November 2007, steering the team up the table and winning promotion to the Premier League the following season playing a brand of football not usually associated with the Championship.

During his tenure, Coyle took Burnley to the Carling Cup semi-final in 2009, before succumbing to us over two legs.

Coyle joined Bolton in January, 2010, guiding the Trotters away from the relegation places while gradually changing the club's outlook. He oversaw a charge to the FA Cup semi-finals in 2010-11 that was halted by Stoke, and has masterminded Bolton's run to this season's quarter-finals by seeing off Macclesfield, Swansea and Millwall.

The recent 2-1 victory over QPR brought Coyle and his squad some respite in the league, but they are still locked in a relegation battle and have some tough weeks ahead.

JUSSI JAASKELAINEN

IN the modern era testimonial games are rare, but the Finnish shot-stopper enjoyed his special match in 2009. With 15 years service, Jussi is well past the required decade's service to qualify. Indeed, he's well on the way to testimonial number two.

GOALKEEPER DOB: 19/04/1975

ADAM BOGDAN

THE 24-year-old is currently Bolton's number one, as his shirt number implies, having ousted Jussi Jaaskelainen from the role. Bogdan joined from Hungarian side Vasas in 2007; he's also been on loan with Crewe.

GOALKEEPER DOB: 27/09/1987

GRETAR STEINSSON

AN Icelandic international since his teenage years, the right-back arrived in the Premier League in 2008, joining Bolton from Dutch club AZ Alkmaar. He has more than 100 league appearances for the club since and is a key figure at the back.

DEFENDER DOB: 09/01/1982

DAVID WHEATER

THE 25-year-old centre-back is a product of the Middlesbrough youth system. He joined Bolton in January, 2011, and scored his first goal for the club in this season's FA Cup third round tie at Macclesfield.

DEFENDER DOB: 14/12/1978

TIM REAM

THE US international centre-back cancelled his honeymoon to sign for Bolton in January from MLS side New York Red Bulls as the Trotters looked to fill the void left by Gary Cahill's move to Chelsea. The St Louis-born 24-year-old made his Bolton debut in the 2-0 FA Cup victory at Millwall and the following week lined up against Cahill and the Blues at Stamford Bridge.

DEFENDER DOB: 05/10/1987

ZAT KNIGHT

CAPPED twice by England, the Solihull-born defender has been a regular in the Premier League for over a decade with Fulham, Aston Villa and now Bolton. The imposing 6ft 7in centre-back joined the Trotters in 2009 from Aston Villa.

DEFENDER DOB: 02/05/1980

DEDRYCK BOYATA

CURRENTLY on loan from Manchester City, the young Belgian has demonstrated his talent in Bolton colours this term, although his campaign has been affected by injury. He joined City in 2006 and has one cap for his country.

LEGEND

MIDFIELDER
1974 - 1982

Prior to lifting the FA Cup and league title with Everton, Peter Reid was busy lifting silverware with Bolton Wanderers in the Seventies as he helped lift the Trotters from Division Two to the top flight.

Coming through the ranks at the club's former Burnden Park home, he was a key member of a side that also included future Bolton manager Sam Allardyce.

And the pair proved influential as the Trotters were promoted to Division One as champions, restoring an element of the so-called glory days when Nat Lofthouse ruled the roost.

Reid made over 200 league appearances during his eight years with Bolton and his committed approach caught the attention of many leading English at the time, notably Everton.

The Toffees tried on more than one occasion to acquire services, before Bolton finally succumbed in 1982 and he moved to Goodison Park for a £60,000 transfer fee.

While a Trotters player, who won international honours with the England Under-21s and would go on to win 13 senior caps for his country, including appearing at the 1986 World Cup in Mexico.

DID YOU KNOW?

Bolton qualified for European football for the first time in their 131 year history when they played in the UEFA Cup in season 2005-06.

DAVID NKOOG

THE former Liverpool man has had a somewhat mixed debut season at the Reebok since he signed for the club last summer. At 22 years old though, his best years are ahead of him and he is an undoubted talent.

STRIKER

DOB: 01/04/1989

RYO MIYAICHI

ON loan from Arsenal since January 31, the 19-year-old winger made a prompt impression at the Reebok, and was voted Player of the Month for February by Bolton fans. He laid on Ivan Klasnic's late winner against QPR earlier this month.

STRIKER

DOB: 14/12/1992

TUNCAY

THE Turkish international struggled to settle at Stoke and parent club Wolfsburg. An attacking midfielder, he joined Bolton on loan last summer but has been utilised mainly from the bench.

STRIKER

DOB: 18/01/1982

KEVIN DAVIES

BOLTON'S veteran striker is a living legend at the Reebok. He shot to fame as a youngster during Chesterfield's amazing 1996-97 FA Cup run and has since played for Blackburn and Southampton. Gained an England cap in 2010.

LADIES PLAYERS REWARDED FOR NATIONAL CALL-UPS

Spurs Ladies' team mates Ryah Vyse and Siobhan Wilson visited the Club's training ground at Chigwell this week and were treated to an impromptu kickaround with members of the First Team squad.

The girls were being rewarded for been selected by England Colleges for the recent Anglo-Welsh Shield.

Ryah and Siobhan are also part of the Spurs Ladies team that has held its own in their maiden season in the Women's Premier League South and also play in the Final of the London FA Cup on Thursday (March 29).

A successful season was made even better when they were given the chance to watch the First Team train at Spurs Lodge before being invited to take part in a penalty shoot-out alongside Emmanuel Adebayor, Jake Livermore and Danny Rose following the training session.

Ryah and Siobhan are beneficiaries of the successful Education and Football Development Centre programme, run by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation in partnership with three local colleges.

The pair study at Barnet and Southgate and are given the opportunity to work for academic qualifications while playing representative football for the college.

The girls' scheme offers pathways through to the Spurs Ladies, and both Ryah and Siobhan have certainly made the most of the opportunity.

PROGRAMMES FROM THE PAST

We continue our regular feature where we look back on games with our latest opposition through our programme archive. This evening John Fennelly reflects on season 2001-02 when Spurs and Bolton also met in both cups.

To our credit we put 14 goals past Bolton Wanderers in our four meetings and reached the Worthington Cup Final. Yet the fact that we eventually lost to Blackburn Rovers in Cardiff makes this a season that few Spurs fans will reflect on with much satisfaction.

The problem was that we travelled to the Millennium Stadium with such optimism following Glenn Hoddle side's stunning elimination of Chelsea in the semi-final.

Hoddle, in his first season in charge, gave debuts to three players on the opening day – Goran Bunjevcevic, Gus Poyet and Christian Ziege – and later signed Dean Richards and Kasey Keller as his re-building began.

Still, it has to be said that we were having a mixed season when Bolton arrived at White Hart Lane for Premiership points in the December. That game was on a Monday and by Tuesday the following week the Trotters would be back for a League Cup fifth round encounter.

The league game saw Bolton battle all the way before finally going down 3-2. Indeed, they took an eight minute lead through Michael Ricketts and held on until the interval when the introduction of substitute Les Ferdinand turned things around.

Within two minutes of the second-half starting his header came back off the bar for Poyet to equalise and, within another 60 seconds, he shot us ahead. Rod Wallace promptly equalised but Teddy Sheringham had the final say with a late winner.

The subsequent quarter-final was a more one-sided affair as we won 6-0, with hat-trick man Ferdinand again to the fore. In fact big Les scored his three goals in nine minutes after Simon Davies had given us the lead.

It was still 4-0 at half-time and the tie was basically over until substitutes Sergei Rebrov and Steffen Iversen prompted a late surge.

The unfortunate Anthony Barnes diverted Redrov's 79th minute cross into his own net before Iversen tapped in our sixth.

Bolton returned here in the February in the fourth round of the FA Cup but were knocked out 4-0 – Iversen, Matthew Etherington, a Darren Anderton penalty and another og from the unlucky Barnes did the damage.

But when we met up again for league points at the Reebok Stadium in the April, a 1-1 draw ensued. Iversen gave us an eight minute lead and substitute Dean Holdsworth levelled on 71.

The programme we are looking at tonight is the Worthington Cup issue which featured Simon Davies on the cover of a 60-page issue.

It opened with a poster of Keller on the inside front page and a feature entitled 'North Side' setting the scene with information on recent games since the last issue.

Boss Hoddle's notes followed in which he welcomed his opposite number Sam Allardyce and predicted a tough game against a side that he praised as "difficult to beat, particularly away from home where they have developed a system that plays to their strengths, suits their outlook and is hard for opponents to overcome.

"Both sides will have learned a great deal about the other from that first encounter and it is up to us to impose ourselves and ensure that we again come out on top."

He praised the Spurs supporters for staying with the team even when we fell behind in games – as we did against Wanderers – adding: "That certainly hasn't always been the case here – and I can say that from my experience as a player!"

We had the usual spotlight on players who have played for both clubs – featuring the likes of Don McAllister, Neil McNab, Chris Fairclough and Gudni Bergsson who had all made the switch in recent years.

Skipper Sheringham was interviewed, as he tucked into pasta at Spurs Lodge, about his headed winner in the league meeting.

"It was a lovely goal to score," said Teddy in what he described as "a tough game...great character was shown by everyone to come back the way we did."

Director of Football, David Pleat, also had his own column and reported on a group of young Slavia Prague players who had joined us to add to their experience and how Academy goalkeeping coach Perry Suckling was impressed by the young custodians in his charge.

On the Bolton tie David advised: "Last Monday both sides earned plusses and we enjoyed an exciting finish in our favour. But our visitors showed enough ideas and pace on the break for us to know that it could again be a very even game this evening."

The news page told us that we would soon be meeting Bolton yet again – this time in the FA Youth Cup – and that we were now selling club

In his own mini column, our mascot Chirpy welcomed his Bolton counterpart Lofty who was said to be impressed with the renovations going on to his nest on the roof of the East Stand.

The 'Hit List' page updated fans on what was running on our web site where Poyet reflected on his goal against the Trotters.

"Sometimes you are just lucky," he said. "This time I was there, I was waiting for the ball...and it went my way!"

And Ferdinand was reported to have backed Sheringham to reclaim his Player of the Year award.

With his inter-club connections, Bolton captain Bergsson was the ideal player to feature on the 'Opposite View' page. Gudni had been set on a return to Iceland to pick up on his law studies when the club's promotion to the Premiership via the play-offs the previous season has inspired him to stay on.

"It is always a special place to come back to," he said about his return to the Lane. "Spurs were my first club in England and I have great feelings for them.

"It is good to return but, I must admit, it's more pleasant when you get the right result!"

Sadly for the likeable Gudni it didn't quite pan out that way. But then few of us in the Spurs seats were complaining!

The depth of emotion will be tangible at White Hart Lane this evening as Bolton Wanderers return here just 10 days after our initial FA Cup quarter-final tie ended in such shocking circumstances.

The harrowing images witnessed by the supporters, players and coaching staff of both sides as medics tried to save the life of Bolton midfielder Fabrice Muamba, after he suffered a heart attack on the pitch, will live long in the memory.

But while Ryan Nelsen accepts that tonight's rearranged fixture will bring back a lot of those memories for those present, he feels that the news of Muamba's amazing recovery will make it easier for all concerned to treat this match in a relatively 'normal' fashion.

"IN OUR DRESSING ROOM AFTERWARDS, THERE WAS JUST ABSOLUTE SHOCK ALL ROUND, A VERY SOMBRE ATMOSPHERE"

Our New Zealand centre-half was on the pitch when Muamba collapsed suddenly after 41 minutes and required urgent medical attention as fans and players looked on in sheer disbelief and horror. The Bolton player left the field on a stretcher and was rushed straight to hospital, everyone fearing the worst as we waited for news.

But, over the course of the next few days, updates from Bolton Wanderers and the London Chest Hospital became more and more positive with each passing bulletin. The heroics of the medical personnel who attended to the England Under-21 international on the pitch, in the ambulance and then at the hospital saved his life and his recovery was such that his family insisted Bolton continue to take part in the FA Cup, which had been in doubt in the first couple of days after the incident.

And so here we are again tonight, the next chapter in a story which shocked the world of football to its very core, yet which united the sport across the globe and now has a happy ending as Fabrice continues his astonishing recovery.

"Of course, there is going to be a lot of emotion and feeling out there this evening, because what happened to Fabrice put football into perspective, in all honesty," admitted Ryan.

"When we play in matches, we are a bunch of alpha males going out there to win the game but when something like that happens, everything else just goes out of the window. It doesn't matter whether it was happening to your bitterest rival or your best friend, it was so shocking to witness it.

"In our dressing room afterwards, there was just absolute shock all round, a very sombre atmosphere" he added. "Each individual was affected by it and we all coped with it in our own way.

"I've certainly never experienced anything like it before. It didn't even cross my mind that was happening, when I walked over to where Fabrice was, I thought he might have broken his leg or damaged his Achilles or something like that, but when I saw first-hand how his body was reacting, I quickly realised it was very serious," said Ryan, who added that the reaction of the crowd on the night, plus the world of football afterwards, together with Muamba's fighting determination to survive, are positives to come from this drama.

"It was just incredibly humbling to see everyone's reaction, especially that of the supporters from both clubs at White Hart Lane, and then from clubs, players and fans from around the world in the days that followed," he said. "It has brought the game together.

"As for Fabrice, it just shows what a fighter he is, how strong a person he must be that he is pulling through after such a serious incident. I only know him on a professional level as a player, but everyone who knows him says what a fantastic guy he is, with a wonderful family. It's been very difficult for all of them and hopefully he is now going to be ok.

"I do feel that is now easier to play the game this evening after hearing the news that he is recovering... both clubs are able to refocus and I'm sure Fabrice wants us all to get back out there and play, although it will still be emotional."

And with a place in the semi-finals at Wembley Stadium up for grabs for the winners, former Blackburn Rovers defender Nelsen knows it will be a tough tie and whoever emerges victorious will have had to work hard for the win.

A veteran of over 400 senior competitive matches, he has never had the privilege of playing at Wembley and would relish the opportunity of fulfilling every young football fan's dream and running out at our national stadium.

"This is the quarter-final of the competition and you don't get any easy games in the FA Cup, never mind at this stage," he said. "Owen Coyle shows a real passion for the game and his team, you can hear it in his voice and see it in his players as well.

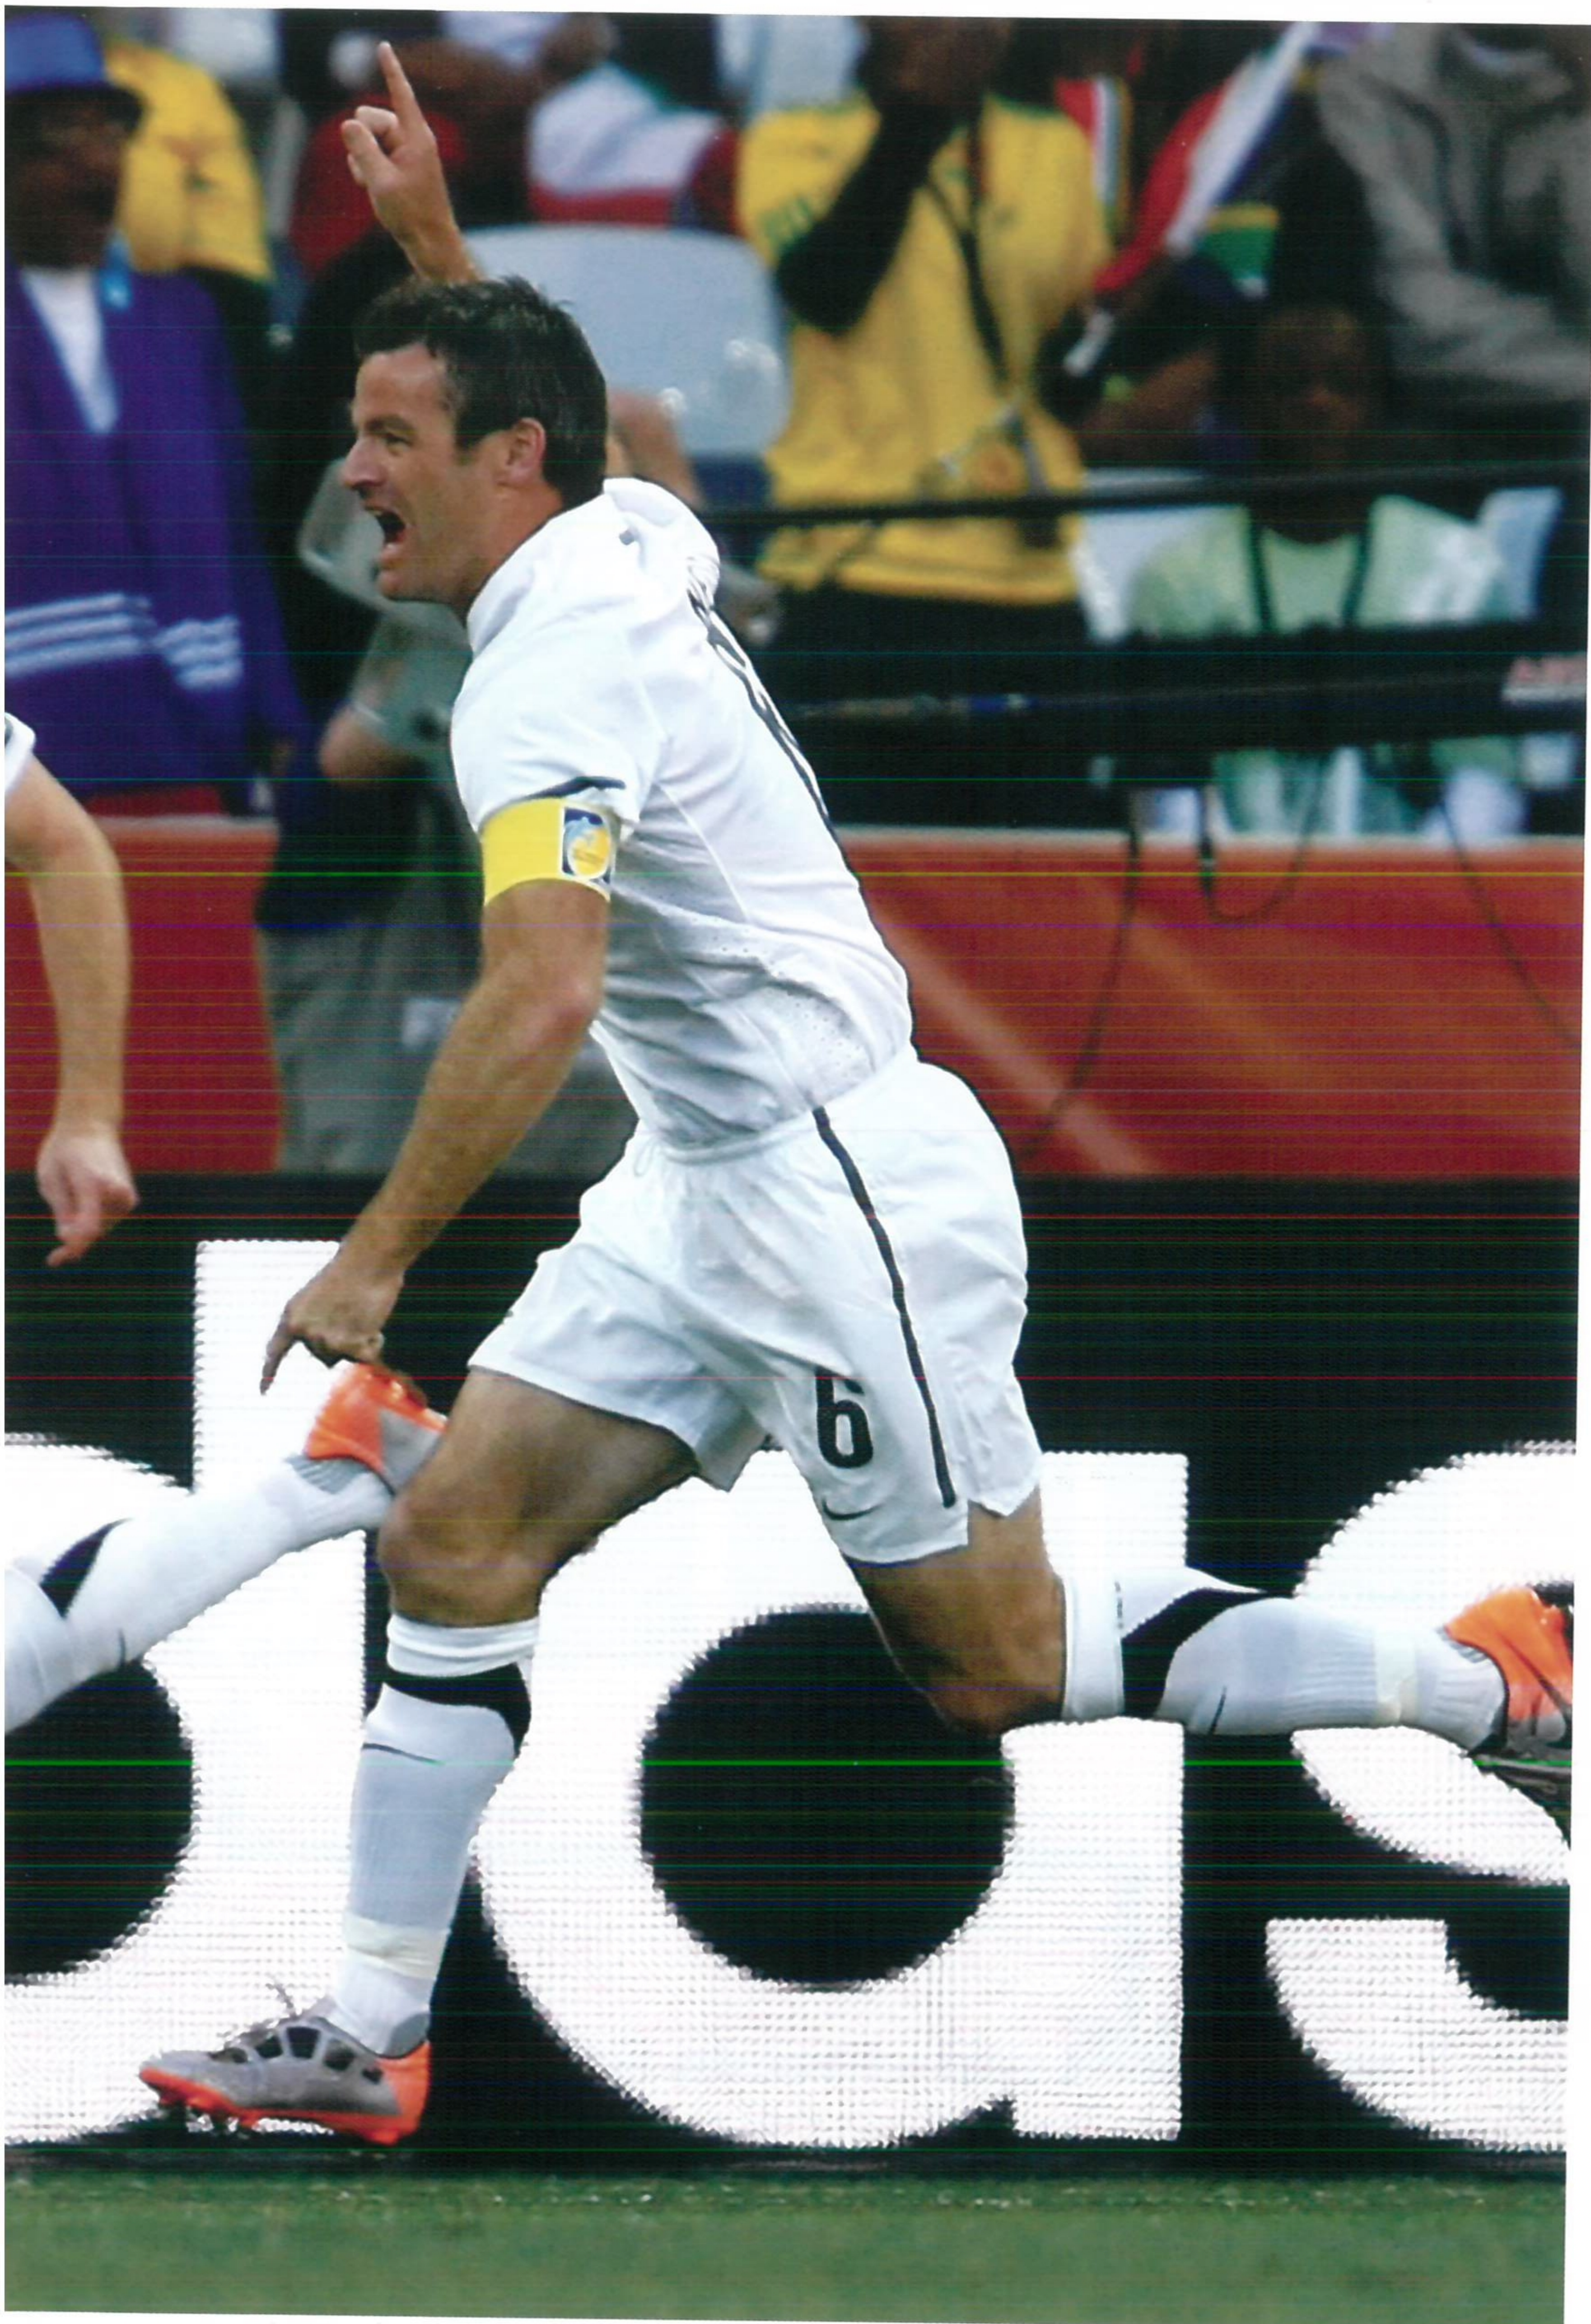

"Current form and league standings go out the window. It will be a really tough game against Bolton, as we saw for 41 minutes last Saturday, they will make it difficult for us. Of course they will also be playing for Fabrice and they will use the motivation of what happened to try to help them through and turn those tragic events into a positive.

"So we will have to be on our guard. We have to almost forget about what happened – and I mean that in the nicest possible way of course – and approach the match as just another game, if we don't then Bolton will punish us tonight. We want to get to Wembley just as much as they do.

"Reaching the last four will be a great reward and that's all the motivation we need. And a good cup run can help in the league as well, winning can quickly become a habit and that's what we want to pick up again now.

"From a personal point of view, I've never played at Wembley in all my years in the game, so hopefully I will get that opportunity as it would be an amazing moment in my career."

Despite being brought up in Christchurch on the other side of the world, Ryan was still raised on a footballing diet of FA Cup matches as the famous old competition's worldwide reputation reached New Zealand.

"To be honest, the FA Cup back home was bigger than the league when I was growing up, it was the main thing of English football on our TV," he added.

"We didn't have league highlights shows as we do now, it was all about the FA Cup. It was almost revered at home, like it seems to be everywhere else in the world, and I remember my father waking me up at some ridiculous hour of the morning to watch the final.

"But they gave me some great memories. I remember the Manchester United and Crystal Palace final which went to a replay before United won, and then Eric Cantona scoring with that volley to help United beat Liverpool a few years later, you don't forget FA Cup moments like those."

HOSPITALITY NEWS

With Mike Rollo, Commercial Manager

Welcome to all our executive boxholders, executive lounge members and hospitality guests for this evening's FA Cup sixth round tie versus Bolton Wanderers.

This re-scheduled match sees the return of many of the guests in the hospitality areas who were here for the first game 10 days ago. We would like to take this opportunity of thanking all hospitality guests for the way they responded to the extremely sad situation which eventually led to the match being abandoned. Due to printing deadlines we are unable to comment on the latest news on Fabrice Muamba; however our corporate supporters along with all fans within the whole stadium send him our best wishes.

As for tonight's game you cannot help but hope that our dreams can turn into reality in gaining a victory to reach the semi final at Wembley, where Chelsea await the winners of this tie, and then hopefully reaching the Final itself. So let's get behind the Lilywhites tonight and sing Spurs are on their way to Wembley - come on you Spurs!

MAN OF THE MATCH

Following our Barclays Premier League home match last Wednesday, versus Stoke City, it was Rafael van der Vaart who was voted as Man of the Match by the Spurs Legends on behalf of the guests in the Oak Room and is pictured being presented with his prize by Martin Peters. Rafael then made a presentation of a signed match shirt to Andrew Lay of HSBC.

1961 Packages

We welcome the following 1961 Package holder into the Oak Room and hope their guests have a great evening and enjoy the match:

EURO FILES

Continuing our 2011-12 review of football throughout the continent, we assess the action from a cross-section of Europe's other leagues

EREDIVISIE (HOLLAND)

They may be top of the table, but AZ Alkmaar were dealt a big blow to their trophy aspirations for 2011-12 last week as they crashed out of the KNVB Cup in the semi-final to unfancied Heracles Almelo.

It's the first time in the club's 109-year history they have reached the final of the competition, causing one of the biggest shocks in Dutch football this season.

Heracles were formed in 1903, being named after the demigod son of Zeus and it took a superhuman effort for them to overcome AZ and progress to the final.

The game had ended 2-2 after 90 minutes, but the minnows eventually won through in extra-time, finishing the game 4-2 winners.

AZ had fallen behind within the opening seven minutes when Willie Overtoom's cross was nodded in by Everton, but they soon hit back through the ever-impressive Adam Maher who grabbed his sixth goal of the season to draw level.

It didn't take them that much longer to be in front, either, as two minutes later Johan Gudmundsson's powerful run resulted in him striking home beyond Dennis Telgenkamp.

It looked liked staying that way until Heracles equalised on 65 minutes through Kwame Quansah and with the game spilling into extra-time, substitute Thomas Benschop put the visitors ahead once more.

They had rode their luck to that point and while AZ endeavoured to find an equaliser, Ninos Gouriye made sure of the win in the last minute with Heracles' fourth of the night to record an historic victory.

It compounded a miserable week for AZ who had seen their lead at the top of the table cut down to just a point by Ajax. It means that they have gone from league and cup double hopefuls to potentially missing out on a trophy altogether.

Their manager Gertjan Verbeek remains confident his team has what it takes to see the season out successfully, though.

"It's a big disappointment," he said. "But we have very much to play for this season and I know my players are capable of winning the title. It's in our hands and I am still confident we can achieve something together."

AXPO SUPER LEAGUE (SWITZERLAND)

On domestic soil, things couldn't get better for Basel. With 13 games remaining, they are 11 points clear of Luzern in second place, with two games in hand.

Indeed, it's a comfortable lead and outlines their dominance in Switzerland. On the continent, however, it is a different story.

This week sees the Champions League enter the quarter-final stage and had it not been for one horrific performance, Basel could very well have been there.

The Swiss champions had overcome Bayern Munich 1-0 at home in the first leg of their Round of 16 tie, but the return in Germany

AZ Alkmaar's Adam Maher (right), who scored in their cup defeat to Heracles, in action recently against Udinese

Llandrindod Wells Golf Club

Golf with a view...

Welcome to Llandrindod Wells Golf Club

In 1905 a group of local businessmen had the foresight to establish an 18-hole golf course on land overlooking the spa town of Llandrindod Wells to service the needs of the thousands of visitors that flocked to the town to "take the waters". The course was designed by six times open champion Harry Vardon, and altered some years later by James Braid, to produce, essentially, the superb course of 18 holes, almost 5800 yards in length (par 69), that you see today.

BAYERN PROVED THAT THEY ARE SERIOUS CONTENDERS FOR THE CHAMPIONS LEAGUE TITLE. "WE JUST GOT BATTERED. BASICALLY WE ENDED UP WATCHING THE STADIUM CLOCK AND PRAYING FOR IT TO END QUICKLY" was far different as they crashed to a 7-0 thumping.

"We were out of our depth," reflected striker Marco Streller. "Everything went their way. Bayern proved that they are serious contenders for the Champions League title.

"We just got battered. Basically we ended up watching the stadium clock and praying for it to end quickly."

Although the loss came two weeks ago, the scars are evidently lingering in the minds of the Basel players, but they have continued their good form at home.

The clash with Xamax in the aftermath of the defeat was postponed, but they were able to progress into the Swiss Cup semi-finals courtesy of a 5-2 defeat of Laussane last Wednesday.

They faced mid-table Servette on Saturday and if they were able to overcome that challenge, Bayern defeat or not, they will almost certainly feature in the Champions League next term where they will no doubt hope to banish their Munich demons.

SUPERLEAGUE (GREECE)

There are six games remaining in the Greek Super League this season and while well-known proverbs involving ladies and singing are often used by the masses at this stage of any campaign, it's difficult to see anyone catching Olympiakos in their pursuit of the title.

The reigning champions, should they retain their title, will make it a record 39 triumphs in Greece and with 18 points left on the board, their nine point lead over closest rivals Panathinaikos seems more than ample to get them over the finishing line first.

They have won their last seven matches in all competitions, but it was the unacceptable scenes at the derby between them and Panathinaikos on March 18 that has all but sealed the title.

Olympiakos had been leading 1-0 when violence erupted between Panathinaikos supporters and the police.

The second half had been delayed

FC Basel's Cabral (left) tussles with Franck Ribery of Bayern Munich in Champions League action

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: THOMAS BENSCHOP

It was a fine team display that saw Heracles Almelo reach the KNVB Cup Final last week, but Thomas Benschop was the man who made them realise a dream that had lasted for over century. He had only been on the field for four minutes when his strike made it 3-2 to Heracles and while his teammate Ninos Gouriye added their fourth, it was Benschop's goal that did the damage and effectively killed AZ's spirits.

Dark-shirted Jimmy Greaves heads goalwards in our 3-1 win at Burnden Park in December, 1962.

OTHER DEFINING MOMENTS – SEASON 2000-2001

On December 9, 2000, Ledley King scored the fastest Premier League goal of all time in an away game at Bradford City. Ledley netted after just 9.7 seconds in our 3-3 draw at Valley Parade which remains a Premier League record.

Glenn Hoddle was appointed as our new manager on March 30, 2001. He replaced George Graham, whose main highlight during his three year spell in charge at White Hart Lane was winning the League Cup in 1999.

Alas, the year ending in one was not to prove a lucky omen for us in 2001. We lost our FA Cup semi-final 2-1 to Arsenal on April 8, 2001 at Old Trafford, ending our chances of winning silverware that season.

DERBY DELIGHT IN FA CUP QUARTER FINAL

As part of a regular series, Andy Greeves talks to ex-Spurs players and managers about defining moments of seasons past. Today, former midfielder Stephen Clemence looks back on our win at West Ham United in the Quarter Final of the FA Cup in 2001.

Our success over the decades in winning trophies when the year ends in one has been well documented. Cockney rockers Chas & Dave even wrote a song called It's Lucky For Spurs When The Year Ends In One in recognition of the fact we have won silverware in 1901, 1921, 1951, 1961, 1971, 1981 and 1991.

As our class of 2000-01 progressed through the rounds of the FA Cup that season, the more superstitious amongst our supporters must have been convinced it was to be our year once again.

We overcame Leyton Orient (1-0), Charlton Athletic (4-2) and Stockport County (4-0) to secure our quarter final place and an away match at West Ham United.

"We were really confident going into the quarter final that we could get a result," recalls midfielder Stephen Clemence. "There has always been something special about playing in FA Cup games for Tottenham given the club's history in the tournament, though the year ending in a one thing isn't something you think about as a player I have to say."

We lined up with a 5-3-2 formation on a wet and windy afternoon at Upton Park against a West Ham United side managed by Harry Redknapp at the time. One of the key battle areas looking at the team sheet was likely to be in central midfield, with our trio of Clemence, Ledley King and Steffen Freund up against the Hammers' Frank Lampard, Joe Cole and Michael Carrick.

The game was played at a frenetic pace throughout, with a fantastic atmosphere ringing around the ground. Our players looked in a confident mood, creating the best early openings and they were rewarded for their efforts on 32 minutes when Sergei Rebrov fired a shot in from the edge of the area.

"I always thought he (Rebrov) was a very talented player who probably could have scored a lot more goals than he did for Spurs," reflects Clemence. "What was never in doubt though was how well he could strike the ball and he demonstrated that at Upton Park."

"I can remember Rebrov's first goal that afternoon from a long throw from Steffen Freund which he absolutely rifled into the top corner."

Just before half time, veteran full-back Stuart Pearce, who had famously scored a free-kick against us for Nottingham Forest in the 1991 FA Cup Final, equalised for West Ham. Reminiscent of his effort at Wembley 10 years previously, Pearce hammered in a free-kick from the edge of the penalty area which our goalkeeper Neil Sullivan could do nothing about.

"The feeling in the camp was that we probably deserved to be in the lead, but football being football, you don't always get what you think you deserve," recalls Clem on the mood in our dressing room at the break. "We just had to go again in the second half and give it our best as we had done and hope that we would come out on top."

Showing no signs of being a side feeling sorry for themselves, we continuing to create chances in the second period. Our lead was restored on 57 minutes when Les Ferdinand headed a Sullivan goal kick into the path of Rebrov. The Ukrainian forward broke through the Hammers backline and held his nerve to slot the ball past Shaka Hislop. Five minutes later it, Gary Doherty's header increased our lead to the delight of the visiting supporters.

"Gary Doherty was a real good luck charm for us in the FA Cup that season," smiles Stephen. "He scored at Leyton Orient in the third round to give us a 1-0 win and got our third at West Ham. He also scored the opening goal in the semi-final against Arsenal, but sadly it wasn't enough for us to go on and get a result that day."

In a competition renowned for its shocks and surprises, no-one connected with Tottenham dared to dream at that stage of the quarter final that they had secured a place in the next round with the best part of 30 minutes still remaining. Nerves were increased on 72 minutes when Hammers substitute Svetoslav Todorov pegged a goal back for the home side.

With the tie firmly in the balance, Sullivan was the real hero of the day pulling off a string of saves that would finally see us secure a 3-2 win.

"After Todorov's goal, West Ham came on strong and we had to hold on a bit," says Clemence. "Full credit to Neil Sullivan, who made some great saves and deservedly won Man-of-the-Match."

"We were delighted when the final whistle went and I can remember we all ran to the Spurs fans, who were in great voice. There were some big celebrations as it was a great result and one which put us into a semi-final to face Arsenal. There are few better feelings that coming out on top in a London derby in the FA Cup."

THOMAS COOK AWAY MATCH TRAVEL

You can book online by visiting the Thomas Cook website www.thomascooksport.com/tottenhamhotspur and enter your details including your new Client Reference number. Alternatively you can book your coach travel over the phone by calling 0870 752 0924 (office hours are Monday-Friday, 9.30am-5.00pm). In the circumstances where Thomas Cook Sport offer additional coaches for domestic away games, supporters are encouraged to book even where it states the service will only operate subject to minimum numbers. The more supporters who book in these circumstances will in turn make it much more probable that the service will operate. If supporters wait to see if it runs it is likely there will not be enough numbers booked. Supporters are only charged once travel is confirmed.

ACCESS CARDS

For the 2011/2012 season One Hotspur members will continue to access White Hart Lane using their Membership Stadium Access Card for matches they have purchased tickets for. Once you successfully complete a booking either online, over the telephone or in person, the data for your purchase will be automatically loaded on to your card. Simply present your card at the turnstile and the turnstile operator will scan the barcode and allow you to enter the stadium. Full details on how the process works can be found on www.tottenhamhotspur.com. All members that purchase a ticket will be emailed in advance of each match to confirm the seat details, and you can also check your exact seat details by logging on to your personal account and visiting the 'My Account' section of the site and clicking on 'Booking History'. Please bring the confirmation with you on the day of the match.

QUARTER-FINAL DELIGHT

Andy Greeves looks back at selection of some of our most memorable FA Cup quarter-final ties.

FA Cup Quarter Final Replay

1966-67 April 12, 1967

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 6
BIRMINGHAM CITY 0

We scored a total of 90 goals in all competitions during the 1966-67 season, with forwards Jimmy Greaves and Alan Gilzean in particular on top form that campaign.

Birmingham City, of the old Second Division, managed to prevent us finding the back of the net though in a goalless draw at St Andrews in an FA Cup quarter-final tie on April 8, 1967.

Normal service was resumed however as the two sides met again at White Hart Lane four days later.

Terry Venables scored two early goals in the replay and a third by Alan Gilzean before half-time all but sealed the result going into the break.

Jimmy Greaves got in on the act in the second half with a brace and Frank Saul's second goal of the season just before full time wrapped up a convincing 6-0 win.

We went on to beat Nottingham Forest in a Hillsborough semi-final and triumphed against Chelsea in the final at the old Wembley to secure our fifth success in the FA Cup.

Teams

Spurs: Jennings, Kinnear, Knowles, Mullery, England, Mackay, Robertson, Greaves, Gilzean, Venables, Saul

Birmingham City: Herriot, Murray, Green, Wylie, Sharples, Beard, Hockney, Thomson, Fenton, Vowden, Bridges

Attendance: 52,304

FA Cup Quarter Final
1981-82 March 6, 1982

CHELSEA 2
TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 3

Despite being a division above Chelsea at the time, our players were taking nothing for granted ahead of a quarter-final visit to Stamford Bridge in 1982.

The Blues had toppled European Cup holders Liverpool in the previous round and were gunning for us as current FA Cup holders.

An upset looked on the cards as Mike Fillery's powerful free-kick gave Chelsea the half time lead. We began to stamp our authority on the game in the second period though and Steve Archibald brought the scores level after Steve Francis had failed to hold a Glenn Hoddle free kick.

Hoddle and Micky Hazard were involved in a fantastic passing move which saw Hoddle give us the lead for the first time on the afternoon minutes later. Hazard's fantastic driven shot then increased our lead and despite Alan Mayes pulling a goal back for Chelsea, our passage to the FA Cup semi-final was secure.

FA Cup win number seven followed at the end of the season with Leicester City and Queens Park Rangers overcome by Keith Burkinshaw's men en-route to that success.

Teams

Chelsea: Francis, Locke, Hutchings, Nutton, Droy, Pates, Rhoades-Brown, Bumstead, Mayes, Walker, Fillery

Spurs: Clemence, Hughton, Miller, Price, Hazard, Perryman, Ardiles, Archibald, Hoddle, Crooks, Galvin

FA Cup Quarter Final
1990-91 March 10, 1991

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 2
NOTTS COUNTY 1

There was an early scare for us in our quarter-final tie with Notts County in 1991, as Irish midfielder Don O'Riordan put the Division Two side into the lead with a fine drive from the edge of the penalty area.

With Paul Gascoigne in inspired form, a comeback always looked likely though. His short corner on 51 minutes brought about our equaliser from Nayim. A neat move involving Gary Mabbutt, Steve Sedgley and Paul Walsh on 83 minutes meanwhile freed the England midfielder to secure a 2-1 win at White Hart Lane.

There was more Gazza magic in the first ever FA Cup semi-final to be played at Wembley. His free kick was the pick of the goals in a fantastic 3-1 win over rivals Arsenal which put us on course to beat Nottingham Forest a month later in the FA Cup Final.

Teams

Spurs: Thorstvedt, Edinburgh, Van Den Hauwe, Sedgley, Nayim (Samways), Mabbutt, Stewart, Gascoigne, Thomas (Walsh), Lineker, Allen.

Notts County: Cherry, Palmer, Harding, Short, Yates, O'Riordan (Johnson), Thomas, Turner, Bartlett, Lund, Draper.

FA Cup Quarter Final

BARNLEY 0

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR 1

Having been knocked out of the FA Cup by Barnsley the previous season, Oakwell wasn't a ground our players or fans would have looked forward to returning to once again.

Some individual magic from David Ginola was to ensure us a much more pleasant evening in South Yorkshire a year later however.

Collecting a pass from Mauricio Taricco on 68 minutes around 40 yards from Barnsley's goal, Ginola dribbled his way past a host of Barnsley players. His run continued into the penalty area where he beat goalkeeper Tony Bullock to score one of the best goals of all time in the FA Cup.

Sadly our run in the competition came to an end in the next round with Newcastle United beating us 2-0 after extra time in the semi-final at Old Trafford.

Teams

Barnsley: T. Bullock, Eaden, De Leeuw, Tinkler, Morgan, Moses, Blackmore (M. Bullock) Mc Clare (Van Der Laan), Jones, Dyer (Sheron), Hignett.

Spurs: Walker, Carr, Vega, Campbell, Taricco, Anderton, Freund, Sherwood, Ginola (Sinton), Ferdinand (Iversen), Armstrong.

Attendance: 18,793

FA Cup Quarter Final Replay

2009-10 March 21, 2010

FULHAM 1

Three goals in 19 second half minutes turned this FA Cup quarter final replay with Fulham on its head.

The original tie at Craven Cottage on March 6, 2010, had finished 0-0, with chances at either end at a premium.

Former Spur Bobby Zamora gave the Cottagers the lead in a more fluid game at White Hart Lane 18 days later. His 17th minute first-time strike arched into the corner of Heurelho Gomes' goal to open the scoring.

Harry Redknapp's substitutes on the night would prove crucial in turning the tie around though. David Bentley, who had come on at the break in place of Niko Kranjcar, scored a fine free kick within two minutes of the restart. Roman Pavlyuchenko, who was on as a replacement for the injured Vedran Corluka, then gave us the lead on the hour mark firing home from a Bentley cross.

Loanee Eidur Gudjohnsen made the tie safe six minutes later, collecting a through ball from Luka Modric and nipping in ahead of Fulham keeper Mark Schwarzer to make it 3-1.

Disappointment was to follow in the FA Cup semi final as we went down 2-0 to Portsmouth after extra-time at Wembley.

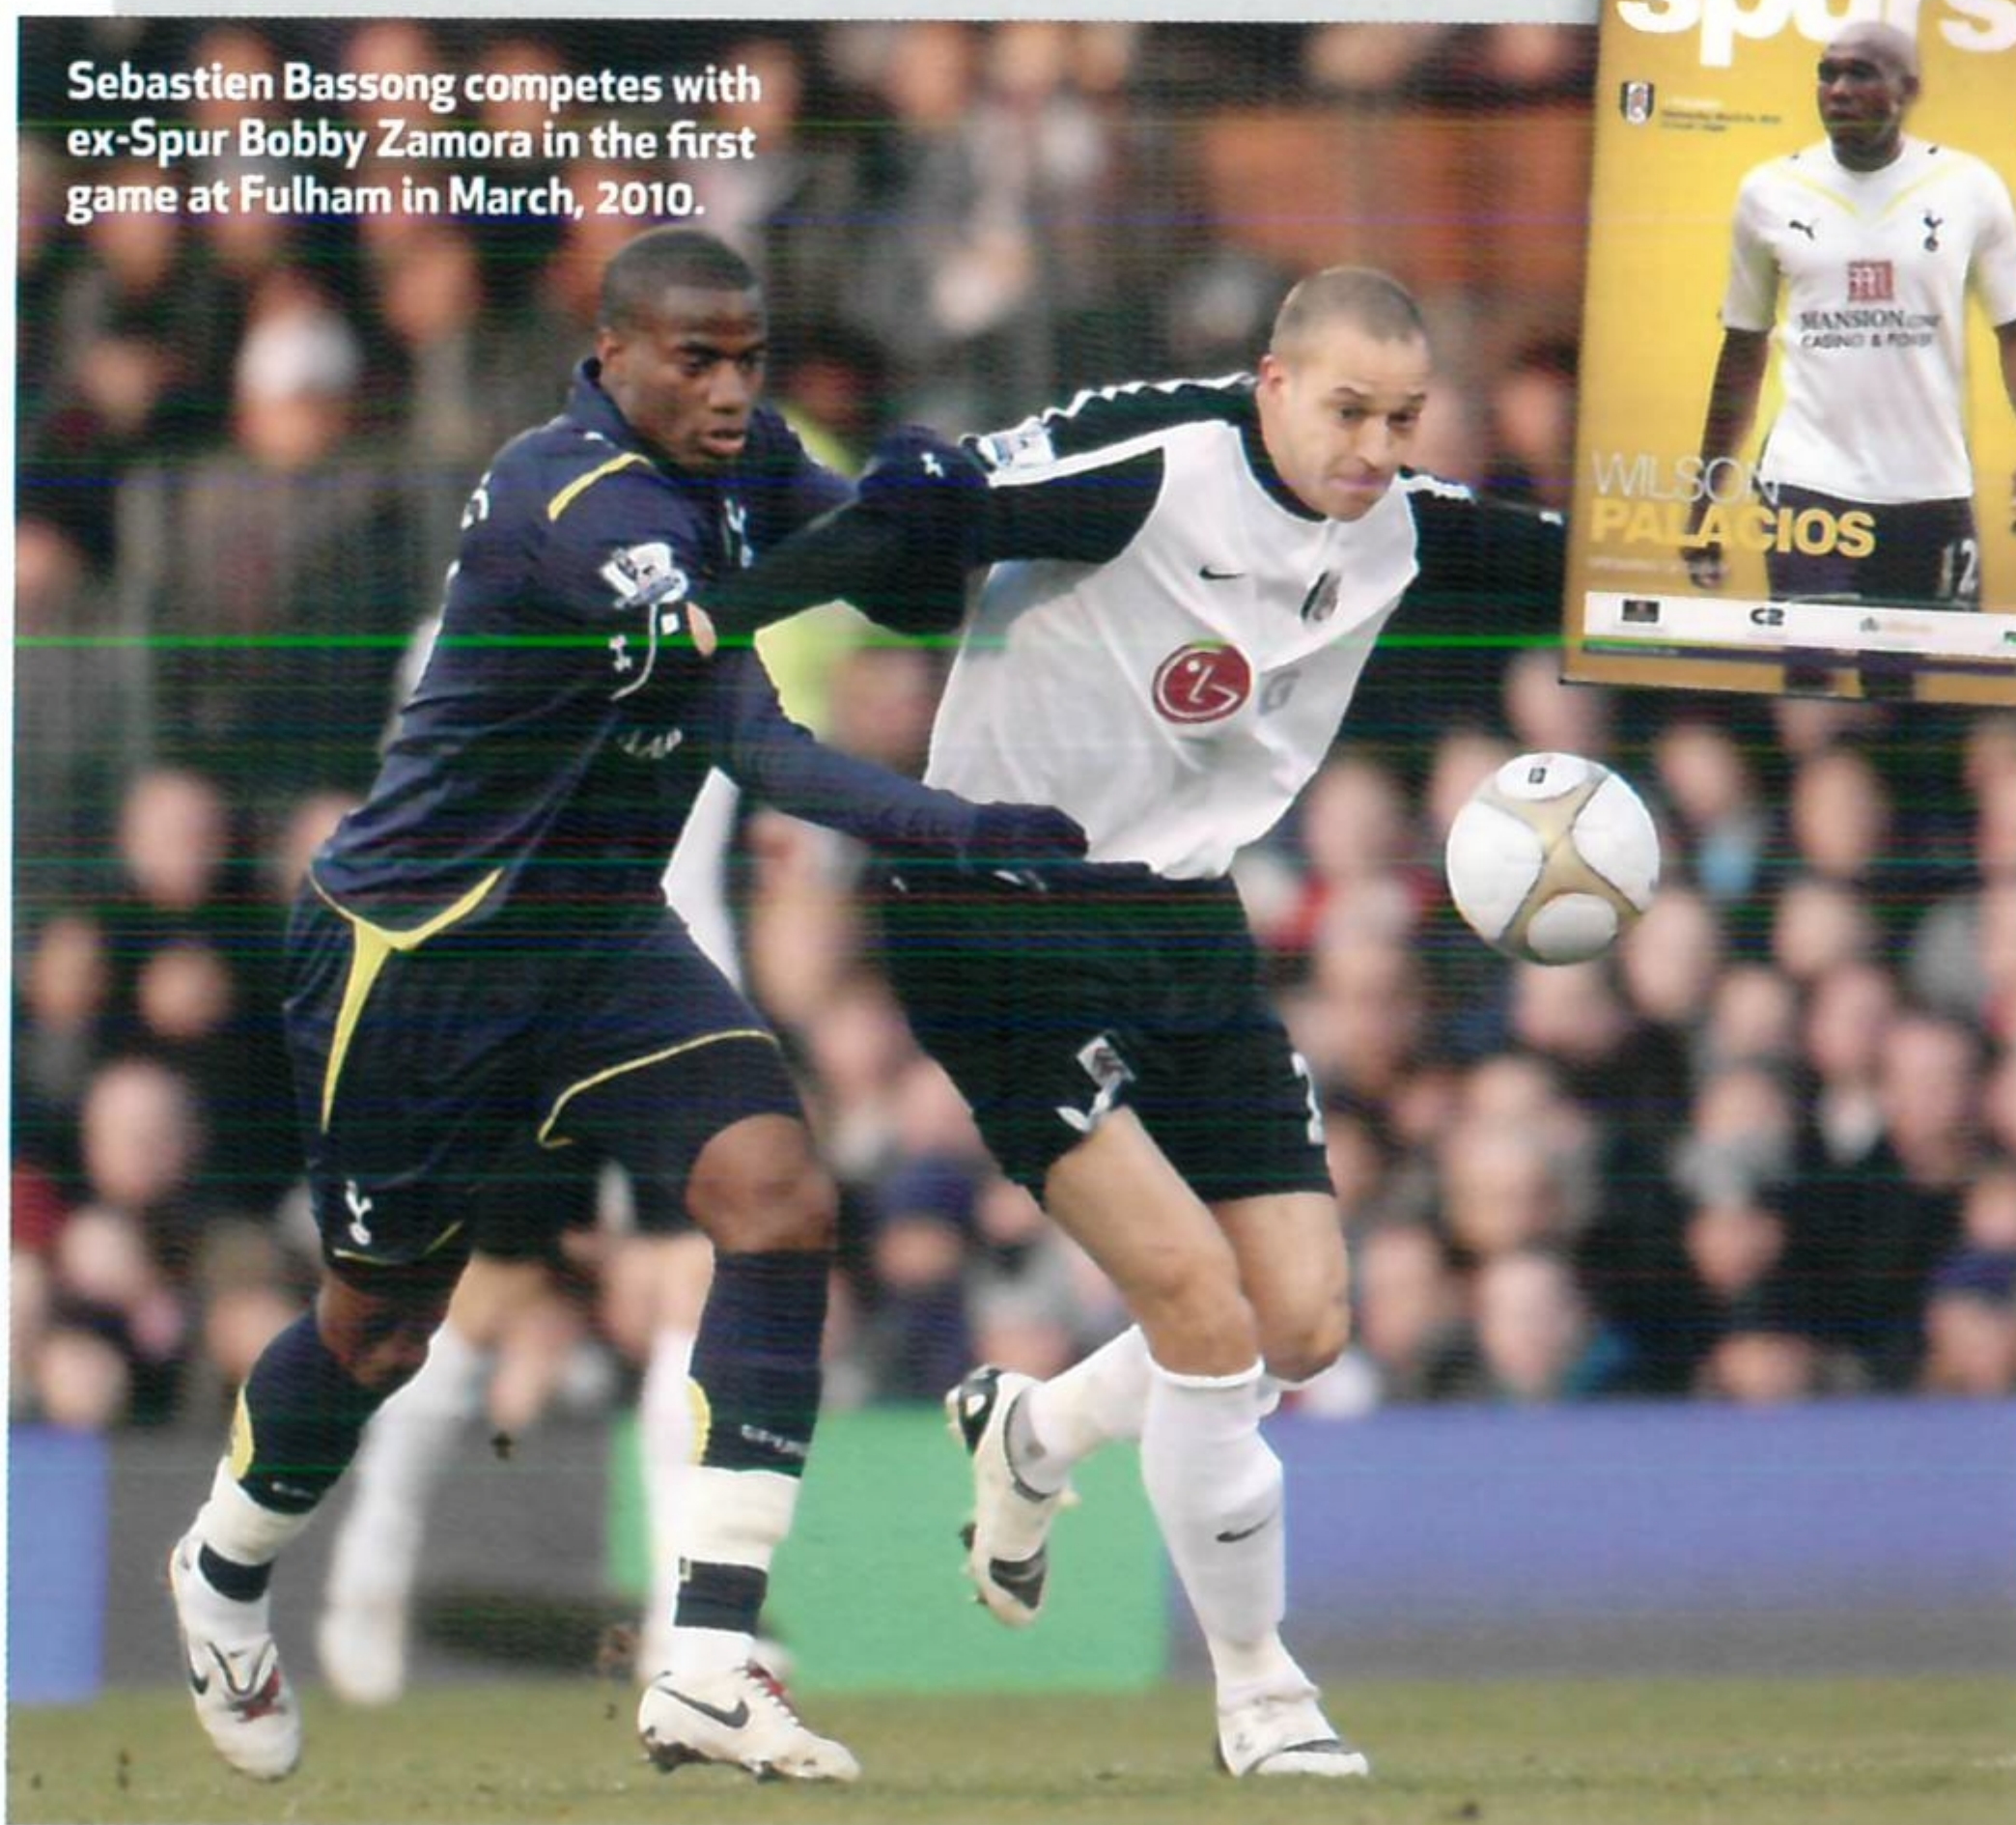

Teams

Spurs: Gomes, Bale, Bassong, Dawson, Corluka (Pavlyuchenko), Assou-Ekotto (Huddleston), Palacios, Modric, Kranjcar (Bentley), Crouch, Gudjohnsen.

SAFETY AT THE LANE

GROUND REGULATION

Supporters please be aware that Ground Regulation point 13 states that racial, homophobic, anti-semitic or discriminatory abuse, chanting or harassment is strictly forbidden and will result in arrest and/or ejection from the ground.

STANDING

The Club would like to reiterate its policy with regards to standing during football matches played at White Hart Lane and ask for the fans to co-operate with the Stewards on matchdays. We naturally recognise that the problem does not exist throughout the Stadium, but where and when it does occur, it affects a number of fans who have been unable to view the pitch on occasions and, due to this, we receive a number of complaints each season. As such, we need to deal with the problem as best we can, but we cannot do this without your support. Therefore, we would ask you to consider the fans behind you, the elderly or the young, those in the Disabled Section and those who cannot stand for prolonged periods of time.

We are aware that football can be a passionate and emotive game and we also know that fans will stand periodically through the match. The issue relates to fans that persistently stand during games and continually work against instructions and requests from stewards.

Your support of the team has been invaluable over recent years and therefore, the Club is unhappy at having to eject and ban fans for this offence, but we will continue to do so if the situation presents itself again this season. Ejection from the Stadium carries a minimum three match ban, with no refund on Season Tickets.

The Club is monitored on a regular basis by the Local Authority, who issue the Safety Certificate, and the Football Licensing Authority and whilst they are happy with the way we deal with a number of issues, they are continually looking at the standing problem and solutions to resolve it.

The ruling is the same as at all other Premier League Clubs and those that are all seater stadiums in other Leagues. It has been noticeable that some Clubs have had their capacities reduced and this is not something we wish to see at White Hart Lane. Please help us to work with the Authorities and recognise that standing is an issue that needs to be dealt with for the benefit of everyone.

Please listen to what the Stewards say and sit down when requested to do so, allowing everyone to enjoy the match in the unique atmosphere here at White Hart Lane, created by Spurs fans.

SPURS AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

We do not tolerate discrimination of any sort at the Club, on the pitch or in the stands. If you experience any form of discrimination, help us to eliminate it from football by reporting it.

Text us on 07537 404821 or email us at safety@tottenhamhotspur.com - we will treat your correspondence in strictest confidence. Your co-operation in helping to make White Hart Lane a safe and enjoyable environment for everyone is greatly appreciated.

EVACUATION PROCEDURE

In the event of an emergency at Tottenham Hotspur Football Club, spectators should remain in their positions and listen carefully to the loud speaker announcements that will be made.

The announcements may direct spectators in a specified area of the ground to evacuation points which may be exit gates or emergency exits leading on to the pitch. Our PA system operates on a 'zoned' basis so do not worry if you cannot hear certain broadcasts too clearly. In such cases, the information will not appertain to your section of the stadium.

Stewards, officials and police officers will direct spectators to the relevant points.

If spectators are requested to vacate a specified area, they are asked to do so calmly and quickly to assist with a safe evacuation.

All supporters should then make their way towards the east side of the stadium using Park Lane and Worcester Avenue, into Northumberland Park, avoiding the High Road and the front of the stadium.

TEXTING SERVICE - PLEASE NOTE OUR NEW NUMBER - 07537 404821

The Texting Service is unique at White Hart Lane and has been used to good effect in past seasons in enabling us to ban people for committing offences on matchdays.

Foul, abusive and racist language will not be tolerated in this stadium, but should you experience any of these and wish to report it, you can do so by texting the Control Room on the above number. You do not have to put up with mindless supporters who are intent on ruining your day with us, so use the system, report the individuals and let us take it from there. For our staff, it is better to monitor the problem as it is happening, we can view the area of concern on CCTV and deal with everything quickly. Help us to make White Hart Lane a safe and welcoming environment for everyone.

If you have information about any persons involved in football hooliganism, please call the National Criminal Intelligence Service - Football Unit on 0800 515495. Your call will be treated in the strictest confidence. This ground is equipped with CCTV with the help of a grant from the football trust.

CLOSING DAWS

THE MICHAEL DAWSON COLUMN

So we are back here at the Lane tonight to play Bolton once again, for a game which is being played in unfortunate circumstances.

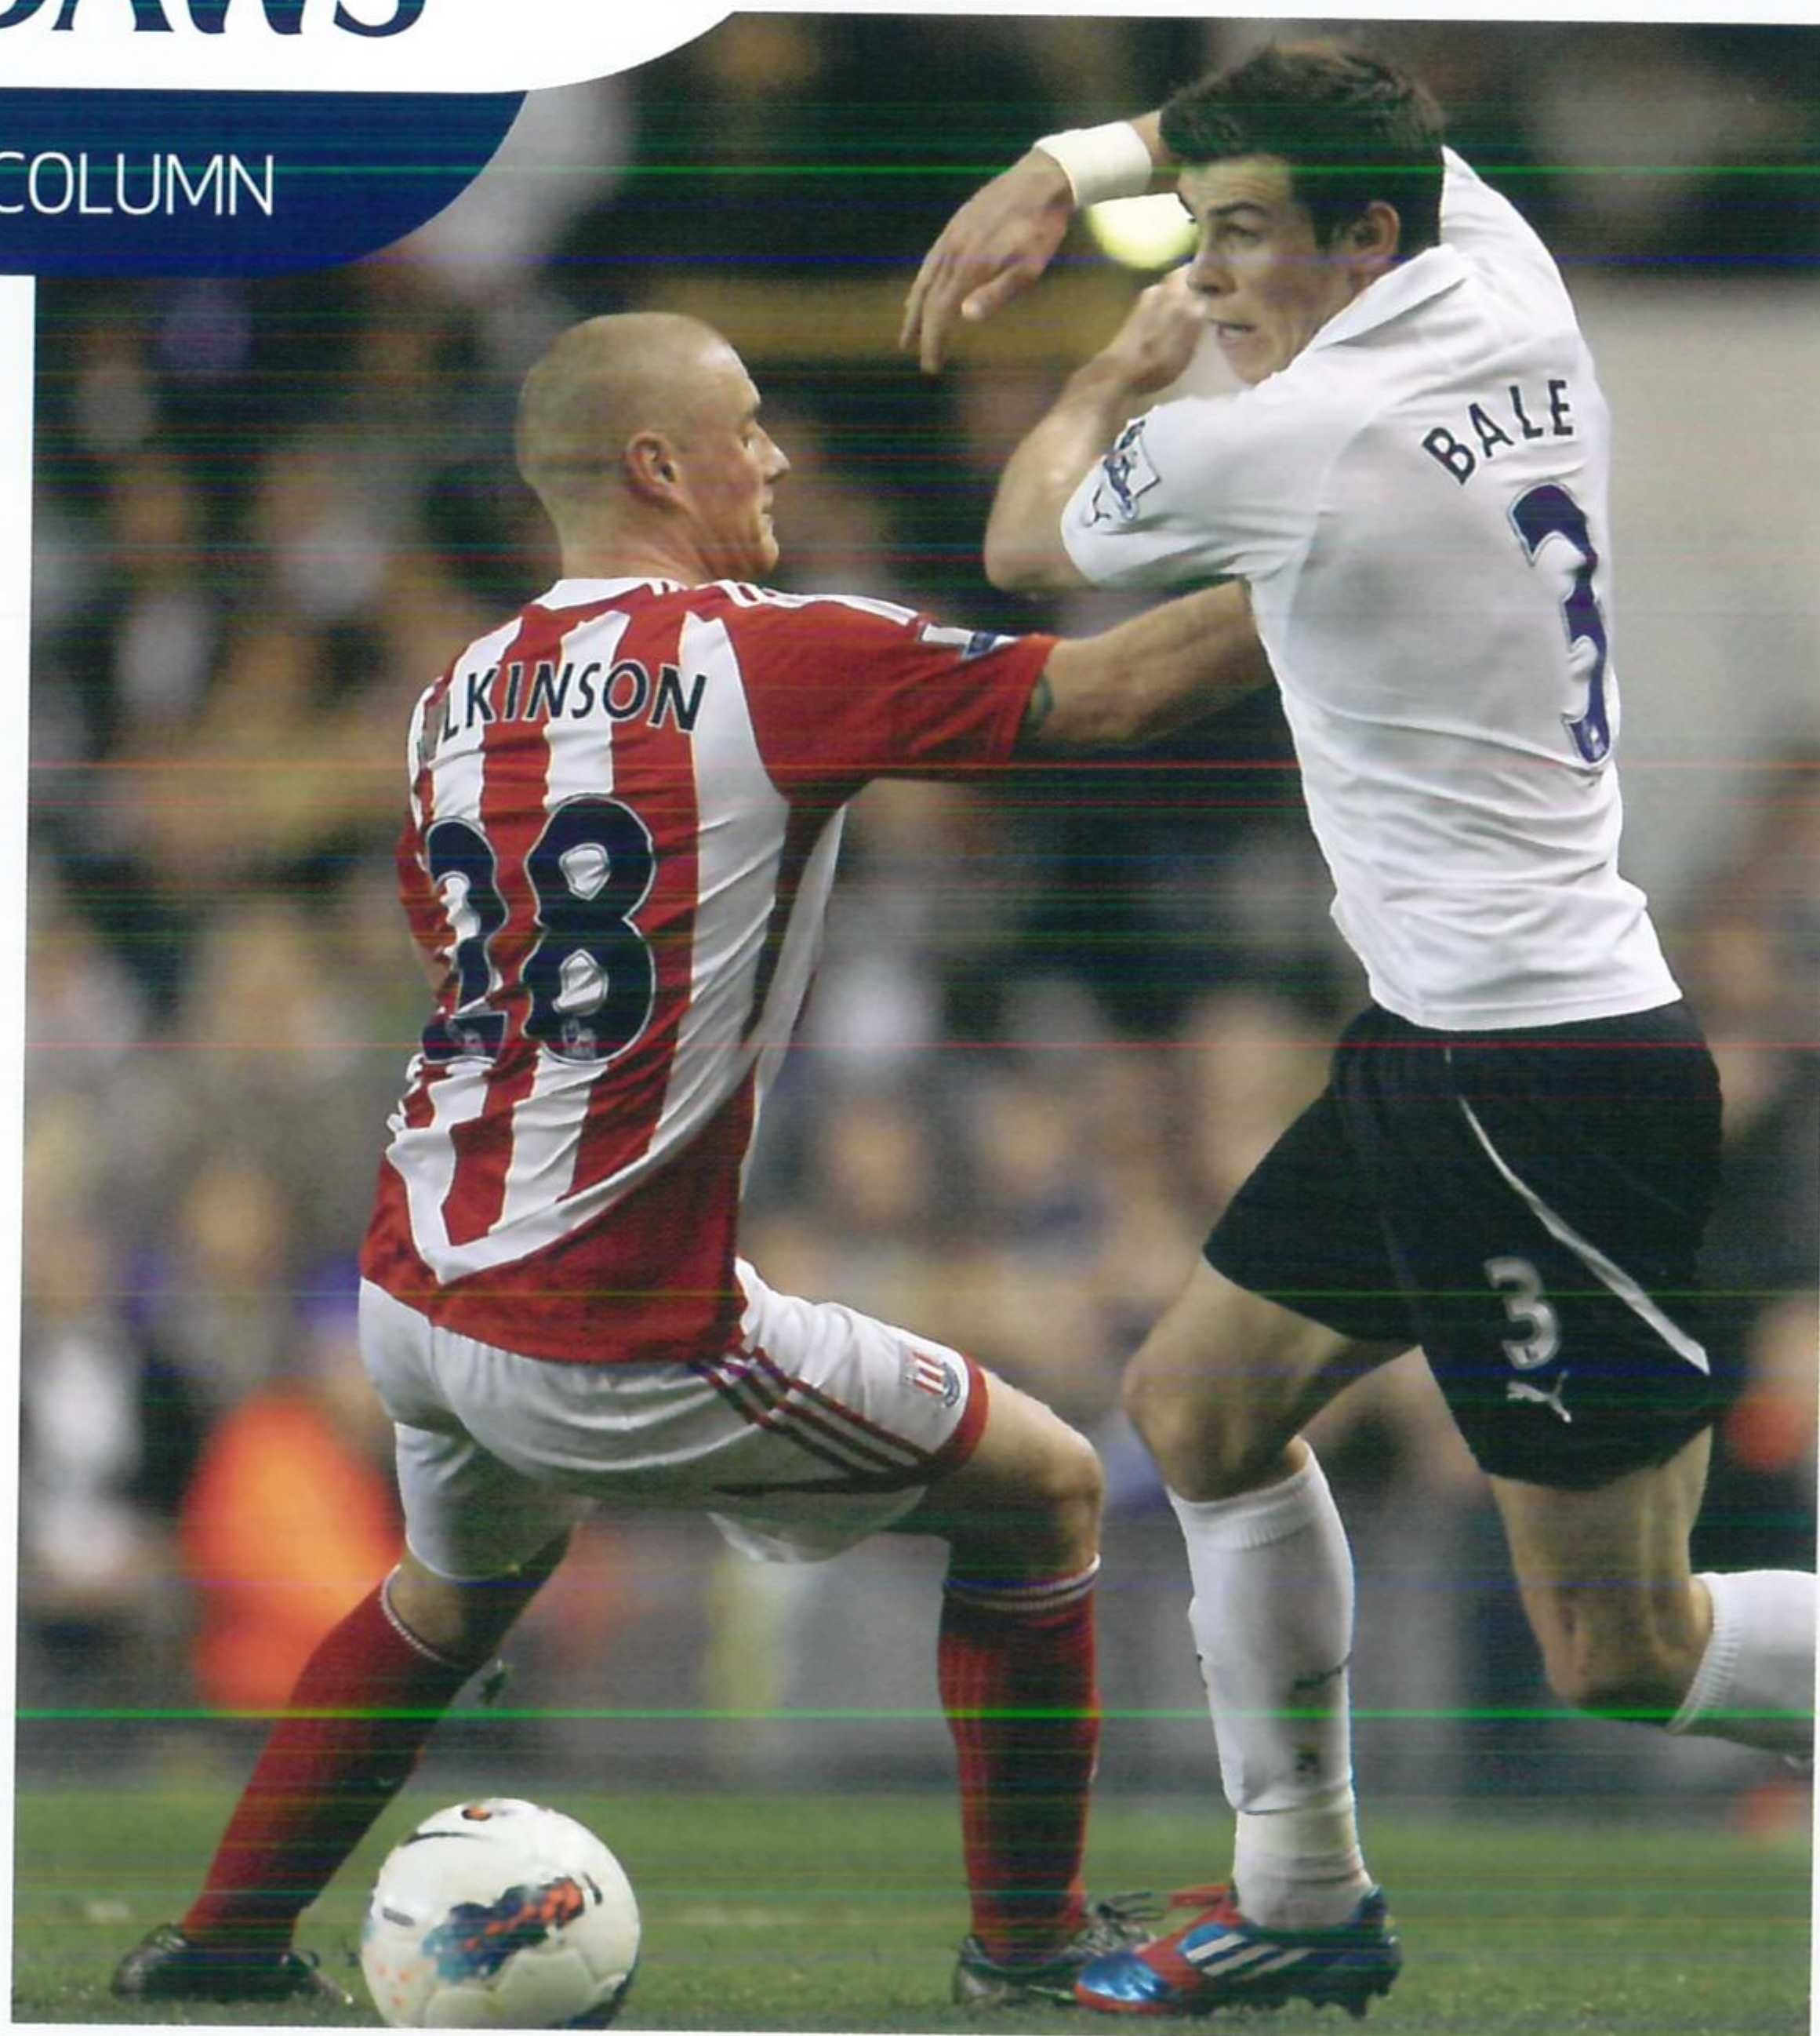

Obviously it will be quite an unusual atmosphere I think this evening after what happened to Fabrice last time out, but it's fantastic news that he appears to be on the road to recovery. I'm sure that road will be a long one, but we all hope he comes through it ok.

He's had fantastic support from across the world and all our thoughts are still with him and his family. The incident is still very much in the news, with the focus switching to the medical people who performed such heroics to save his life.

I have to give a big mention to the medical staff here at Spurs and Bolton and to everyone involved that did what they had to do to keep Fabrice alive. Hopefully he will keep progressing in the right way and I'm sure when he realises just what happened, he will want to thank a lot of people.

These guys are trained to do such a job, but they probably never thought they would need to do that in the middle of a football pitch. I cannot praise them enough for their efforts.

As for the game, Bolton have decided to play on in the FA Cup and I'm sure Fabrice wants his team to do just that. No doubt his team-mates will want to get to the semi-final and go on to win the competition for him and he will give them extra motivation this evening.

But we want to reach the last four as well. There's a chance for us to put on a good performance tonight, win the match and get to Wembley and that's what we'll be trying to achieve.

We had a disappointing result last time out here with the 1-1 draw against Stoke, but we did dominate most of the match as we generally do in our home games, and showed good character to keep plugging away.

We certainly deserved Rafa's late equaliser, at the very least.

So if we can dominate possession again against Bolton, I'm sure the lads can book a place in the semi-finals. Our supporters will certainly want a day out at Wembley and with your fantastic backing, we can do this together tonight.

Until next time.

OLYMPIC SPIRIT

As the countdown to London 2012 continues, Andy Greeves talks to Olympic and Paralympic competitors past and present who not only share a burning desire for medal success but a passion for Tottenham Hotspur Football Club.

Andrew Osagie is currently experiencing his most enjoyable month in athletics to date, having won bronze at the IAAF World Indoor Championships at the beginning of March.

The Harlow-born 800m runner says he is still "absolutely buzzing" from his success in Istanbul which he believes will alter the way the athletics world will judge him.

"Winning that bronze is my biggest sporting achievement to date and has probably changed my standing in the sport to being an athlete with potential as I was in my breakthrough campaign last season, to hopefully being seen as a contender now," reflects the 24-year-old.

Osagie's status as a medal contender ahead of the Olympics seems all the more amazing considering that up until 18, football and karate rather than athletics were his main sporting focuses.

"My route into athletics was a strange one in a way, in that I never actively pursued an athletics career," he admits. "From an early age though I had this idea in my head that I was going to compete in an Olympic Games.

"I didn't know how I was going to make it happen or indeed what sport I was going to compete in, but it was just this strong thought. Now here I am, hopefully just months away from it becoming a reality.

"I started to get involved with athletics from the age of 16 and started getting really serious about it when I went off to university a few years later. It was a rapid development for me from the age of 18 onwards and 800 meters has become my forte.

"I was injured in 2008 and missed out on the opportunity to go to the Olympics in Beijing, which was a setback – although I don't think many people expected me to qualify."

Four years on and Osagie is fit, focused and in the best form of his career. Despite "not wanting to count any chickens" with his Olympic qualification not yet secured, he agrees that the Games come at a good time for him.

"I'm a peak age for an athlete now at 24-years-old," he says. "I've achieved my qualifying times to date to get to the Games and now I have a world medal under my belt which all bodes well. I'm confident and positive about what is to come. The British Championships will be held in June which will hopefully see my qualification for the Olympics confirmed."

Osagie grew up less than 20 miles from the Olympic Stadium in Stratford, East London, which would make qualification for the Games even sweeter for him. The Olympics also takes place close to the site of his greatest sporting inspiration growing up.

"I'm a huge Tottenham Hotspur supporter," he smiles. "In my head, I chose to become a Spurs fan when I was about three and it was a simple as that. If you listen to my brother though, he will tell you that it was a choice that he made because he was a Manchester United fan and didn't want me following suit so he told me to support Tottenham."

"Whatever happened, it doesn't really matter. Tottenham are my local team, they have always been the team I have followed and that is the most important thing."

Andrew's first visit to White Hart Lane came during the 1998-99 season, when he saw us beat Wimbledon 3-0 in an FA Cup fourth round replay.

"That it was a season when we played Wimbledon in the FA Cup, League Cup and Premier League all within a matter of weeks," he laughs. "The players must have been sick of the sight of each other!"

"I've been coming to games at White Hart Lane ever since. It can be tricky for me to get to Spurs matches on weekends because "I didn't actually get to the game or watch it on TV, but can picture very vividly myself listening on the radio at home, sat on my bed which had a Tottenham duvet cover. When Allan Nielsen scored, I was jumping round like a mad man. It was fantastic.

"I liked Allan Nielsen a lot as a player but if we're talking about my favourite Tottenham players of all time, then it's got to be Teddy Sheringham and Gareth Bale. Sheringham was such a fantastic, consistent player for us during a bit of an up and down spell during the 1990s.

"And nowadays it is all about Gareth Bale, or Bale Force as I call him. He must be an absolute nightmare to come up against if you're a defender so I'm just glad that he's in a Spurs shirt."

LUKA MODRIC

Time to find out a little bit more about the sporting interests and achievements of our players and coaches, from their early days right through to the present time. Answering the questions this evening is Luka Modric

GROWING UP

What are your first memories of kicking a ball?

I can remember I always had a football with me and I used to play outside my house with my friends all the time, especially in the summer.

What sports did you play as a youngster?

Apart from football, I played a lot of basketball because my home town of Zadar is known as a big basketball city.

What was the name of your first youth football team?

My first one was my home town club, Zadar.

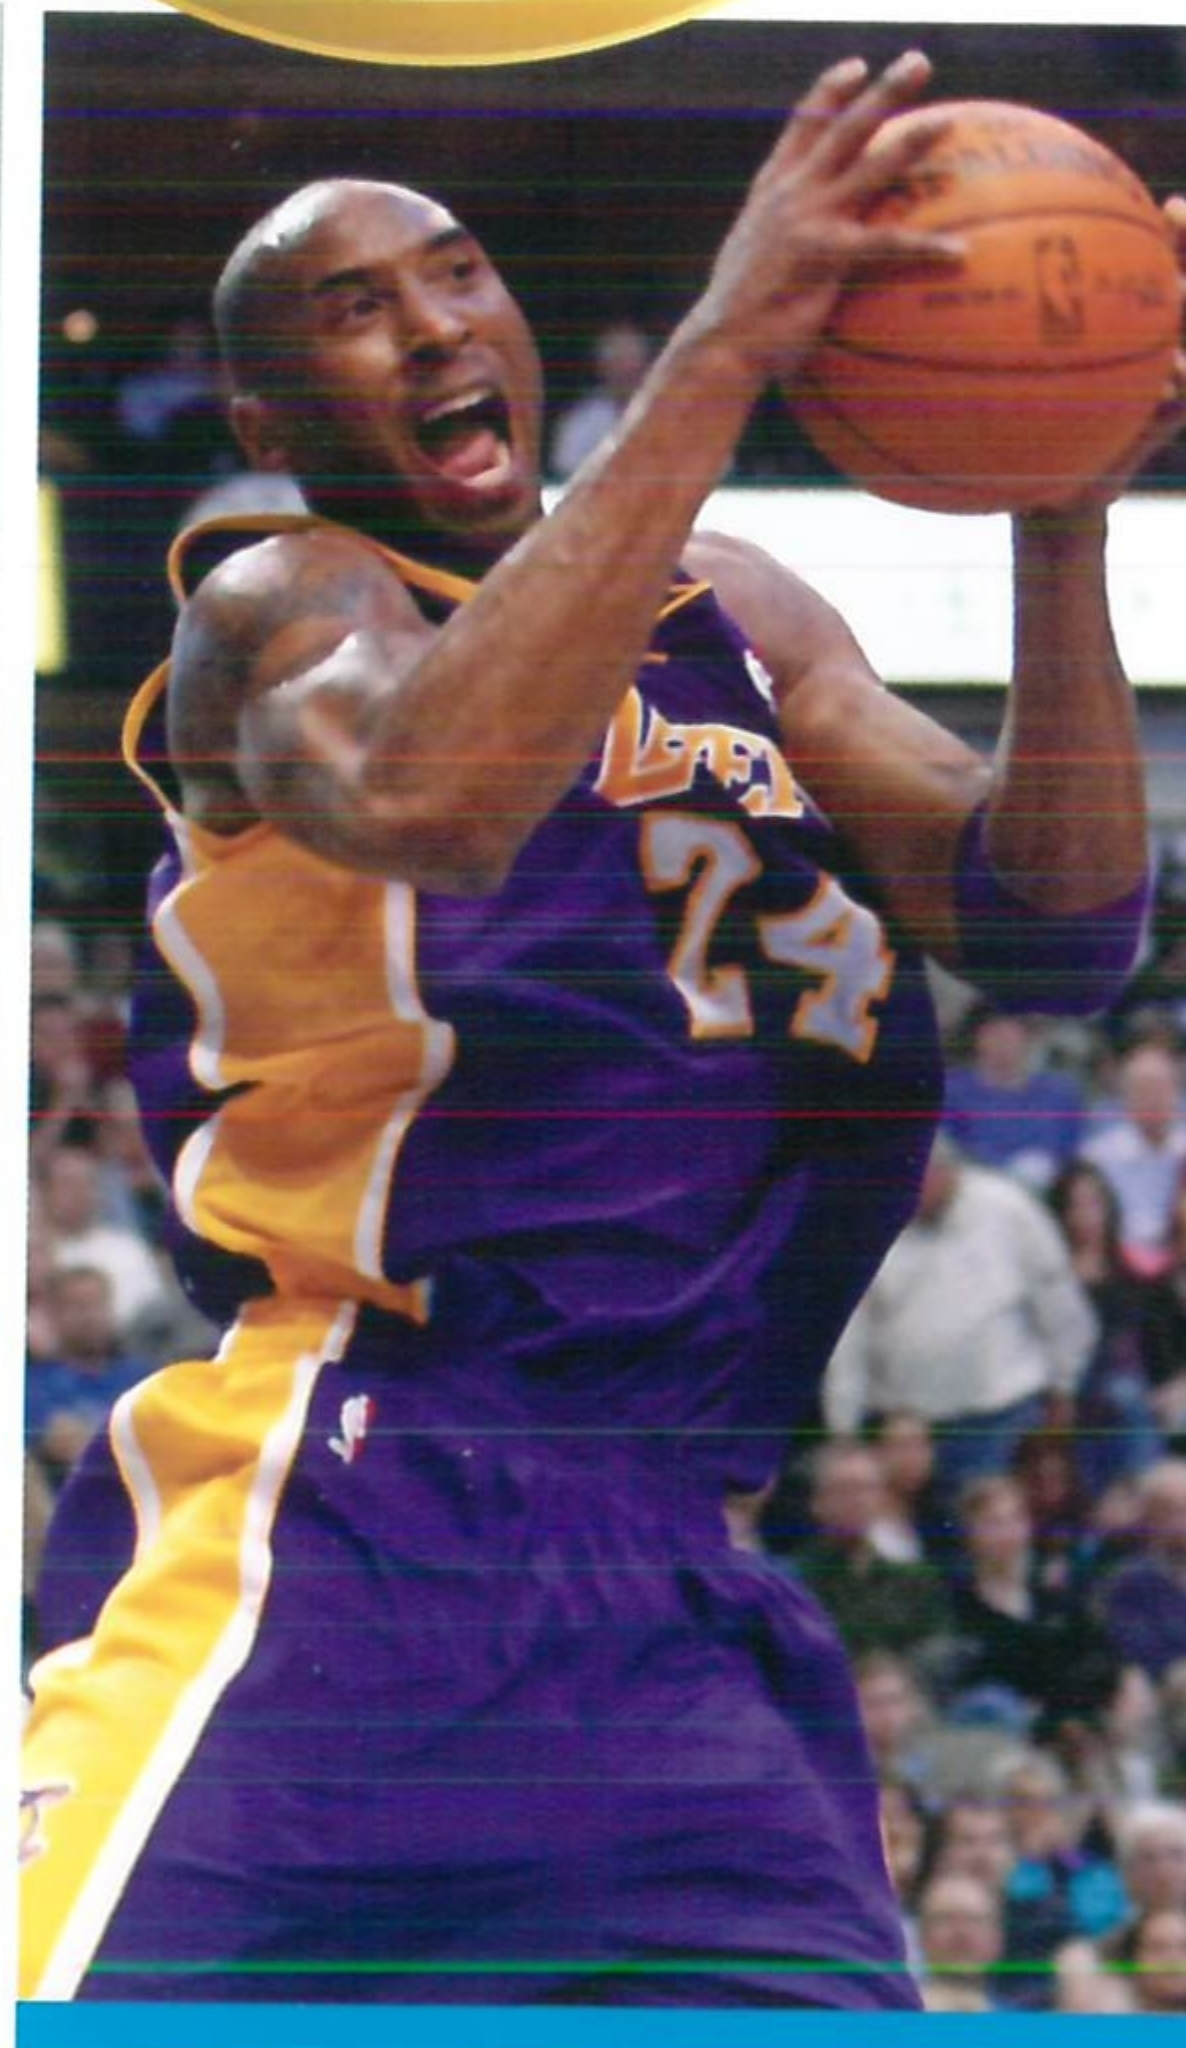

VENUES

At which ground did you play your first professional match?

That was in Bosnia when I went on loan to Zrinjski Mostar and it was at Siroki Brijeg in the Bosnian league. I was only 17.

What was the last arena you went to watch a sporting event at?

I went to the O2 recently to watch Roger Federer play Rafa Nadal at the ATP World Tour Finals.

“APART FROM FOOTBALL, I PLAYED A LOT OF BASKETBALL BECAUSE MY HOME TOWN OF ZADAR IS A KNOWN AS A BIG BASKETBALL CITY”

Which football stadium would you most like to play at, that you haven't already appeared in?

I've been fortunate to play at the Santiago Bernabeu and the San Siro with Tottenham, but the one I would love to play at is the Nou Camp, such a fantastic stadium. I've been there to watch a match, but not to play.

What's the best sporting arena you've been at, either as a player or spectator?

I think I would have to say the Santiago Bernabeu, it was a great place to play football despite the scoreline that evening, and I also enjoyed the San Siro. They are two famous venues in world football and you can see why when you play there.

SPORTING HEROES

As a youngster, which footballer did you look up to the most?

For me it was Zvonimir Boban, who played for Croatia and AC Milan, and also Francesco Totti. They were the two players I always used to watch, they were my idols.

Aside from football, which current sports person do you enjoy watching perform?

I like to watch basketball a lot and I used to love watching Michael Jordan, while these days it would be Kobe Bryant. But I'm also a big tennis fan and really enjoy watching Federer and Nadal play against each other, especially in the Grand Slams.

Who would you say is your all-time sporting hero?

That's very difficult but maybe Michael Jordan, I would watch as many of his games as I could when he was playing, a great sportsman.

OLYMPIC MEMORIES

Which was the first Olympics you remember watching?

My first memory would have been the Croatian basketball team reaching the final against the USA 'Dream Team' in Barcelona in 1992.

What one Olympics moment stands out for you?

It has to be that one because it was the first games that we competed as Croatia and it was an unbelievable achievement for the basketball team to make it all the way to the final. It gave the country a real lift, a sense of national pride and although they lost, they were heroes back home.

Who has been your favourite Olympian down the years?

Probably Michael Johnson, I always liked to watch him, he was fantastic when he was at his best, so quick in those gold boots.

Which one Olympic event would you most like to compete in?

For me it would be football. It would be an honour to play for my country at the Olympics.

Will you be attending the London 2012 games, if so which events?

I hope so... I would like to go to see something like basketball, tennis, football or athletics. I've always wanted to go to Wimbledon for the tennis, but I'm never in London when it is on, so maybe for the Olympics I might be able to go.

SPORTING PROWESS

What other sports did you enjoy playing before becoming a footballer?

As well as basketball and football I also played a bit of tennis, which I always used to enjoy.

What was the last sport you played, aside from football?

It was basketball last summer with my friend, back in Croatia. We played one-on-one and we are both competitive, so it was quite exhausting but great fun.

If you could, which one sport would you most like to try that you've never done before?

I've tried a lot of sports in my time, including skiing and handball as well as the others I mentioned before, but I think it would be great experience to have a go at Formula One. Just to feel the thrill of driving those cars and to see just how skilful those drivers are, it must be amazing.

"I'VE TRIED A LOT OF SPORTS IN MY TIME, INCLUDING SKIING AND HANDBALL AS WELL AS THE OTHERS I MENTIONED BEFORE, BUT I THINK IT WOULD BE GREAT EXPERIENCE TO HAVE A GO AT FORMULA ONE"

What's your favourite games console sports game?

Pro Evolution on the PS3. I haven't played for a while now, but when we are away with the national team I sometimes play against Charlie (Corluka), we would be up all night playing! The games were always close though.

SPURS AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

We do not tolerate discrimination of any sort at the club, on the pitch or in the stands.

If you experience any form of discrimination, help us to eliminate it from football by reporting it.

Text us on 07537 404821 or email us at safety@tottenhamhotspur.com - we will treat your correspondence in strictest confidence

Your co-operation in helping make White Hart Lane a safe and enjoyable environment for everyone is greatly appreciated.

If you have any information about any person involved in football hooliganism, please call the National Criminal Intelligence Service - Football Unit on 0800 515495. Your call will be treated in the strictest of confidence. This ground is equipped with CCTV with the help of a grant from the Football Trust.

NO SWEARING WITHIN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that swearing is not permitted anywhere at White Hart Lane

NO SMOKING WITHIN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that smoking is not permitted anywhere at White Hart Lane.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

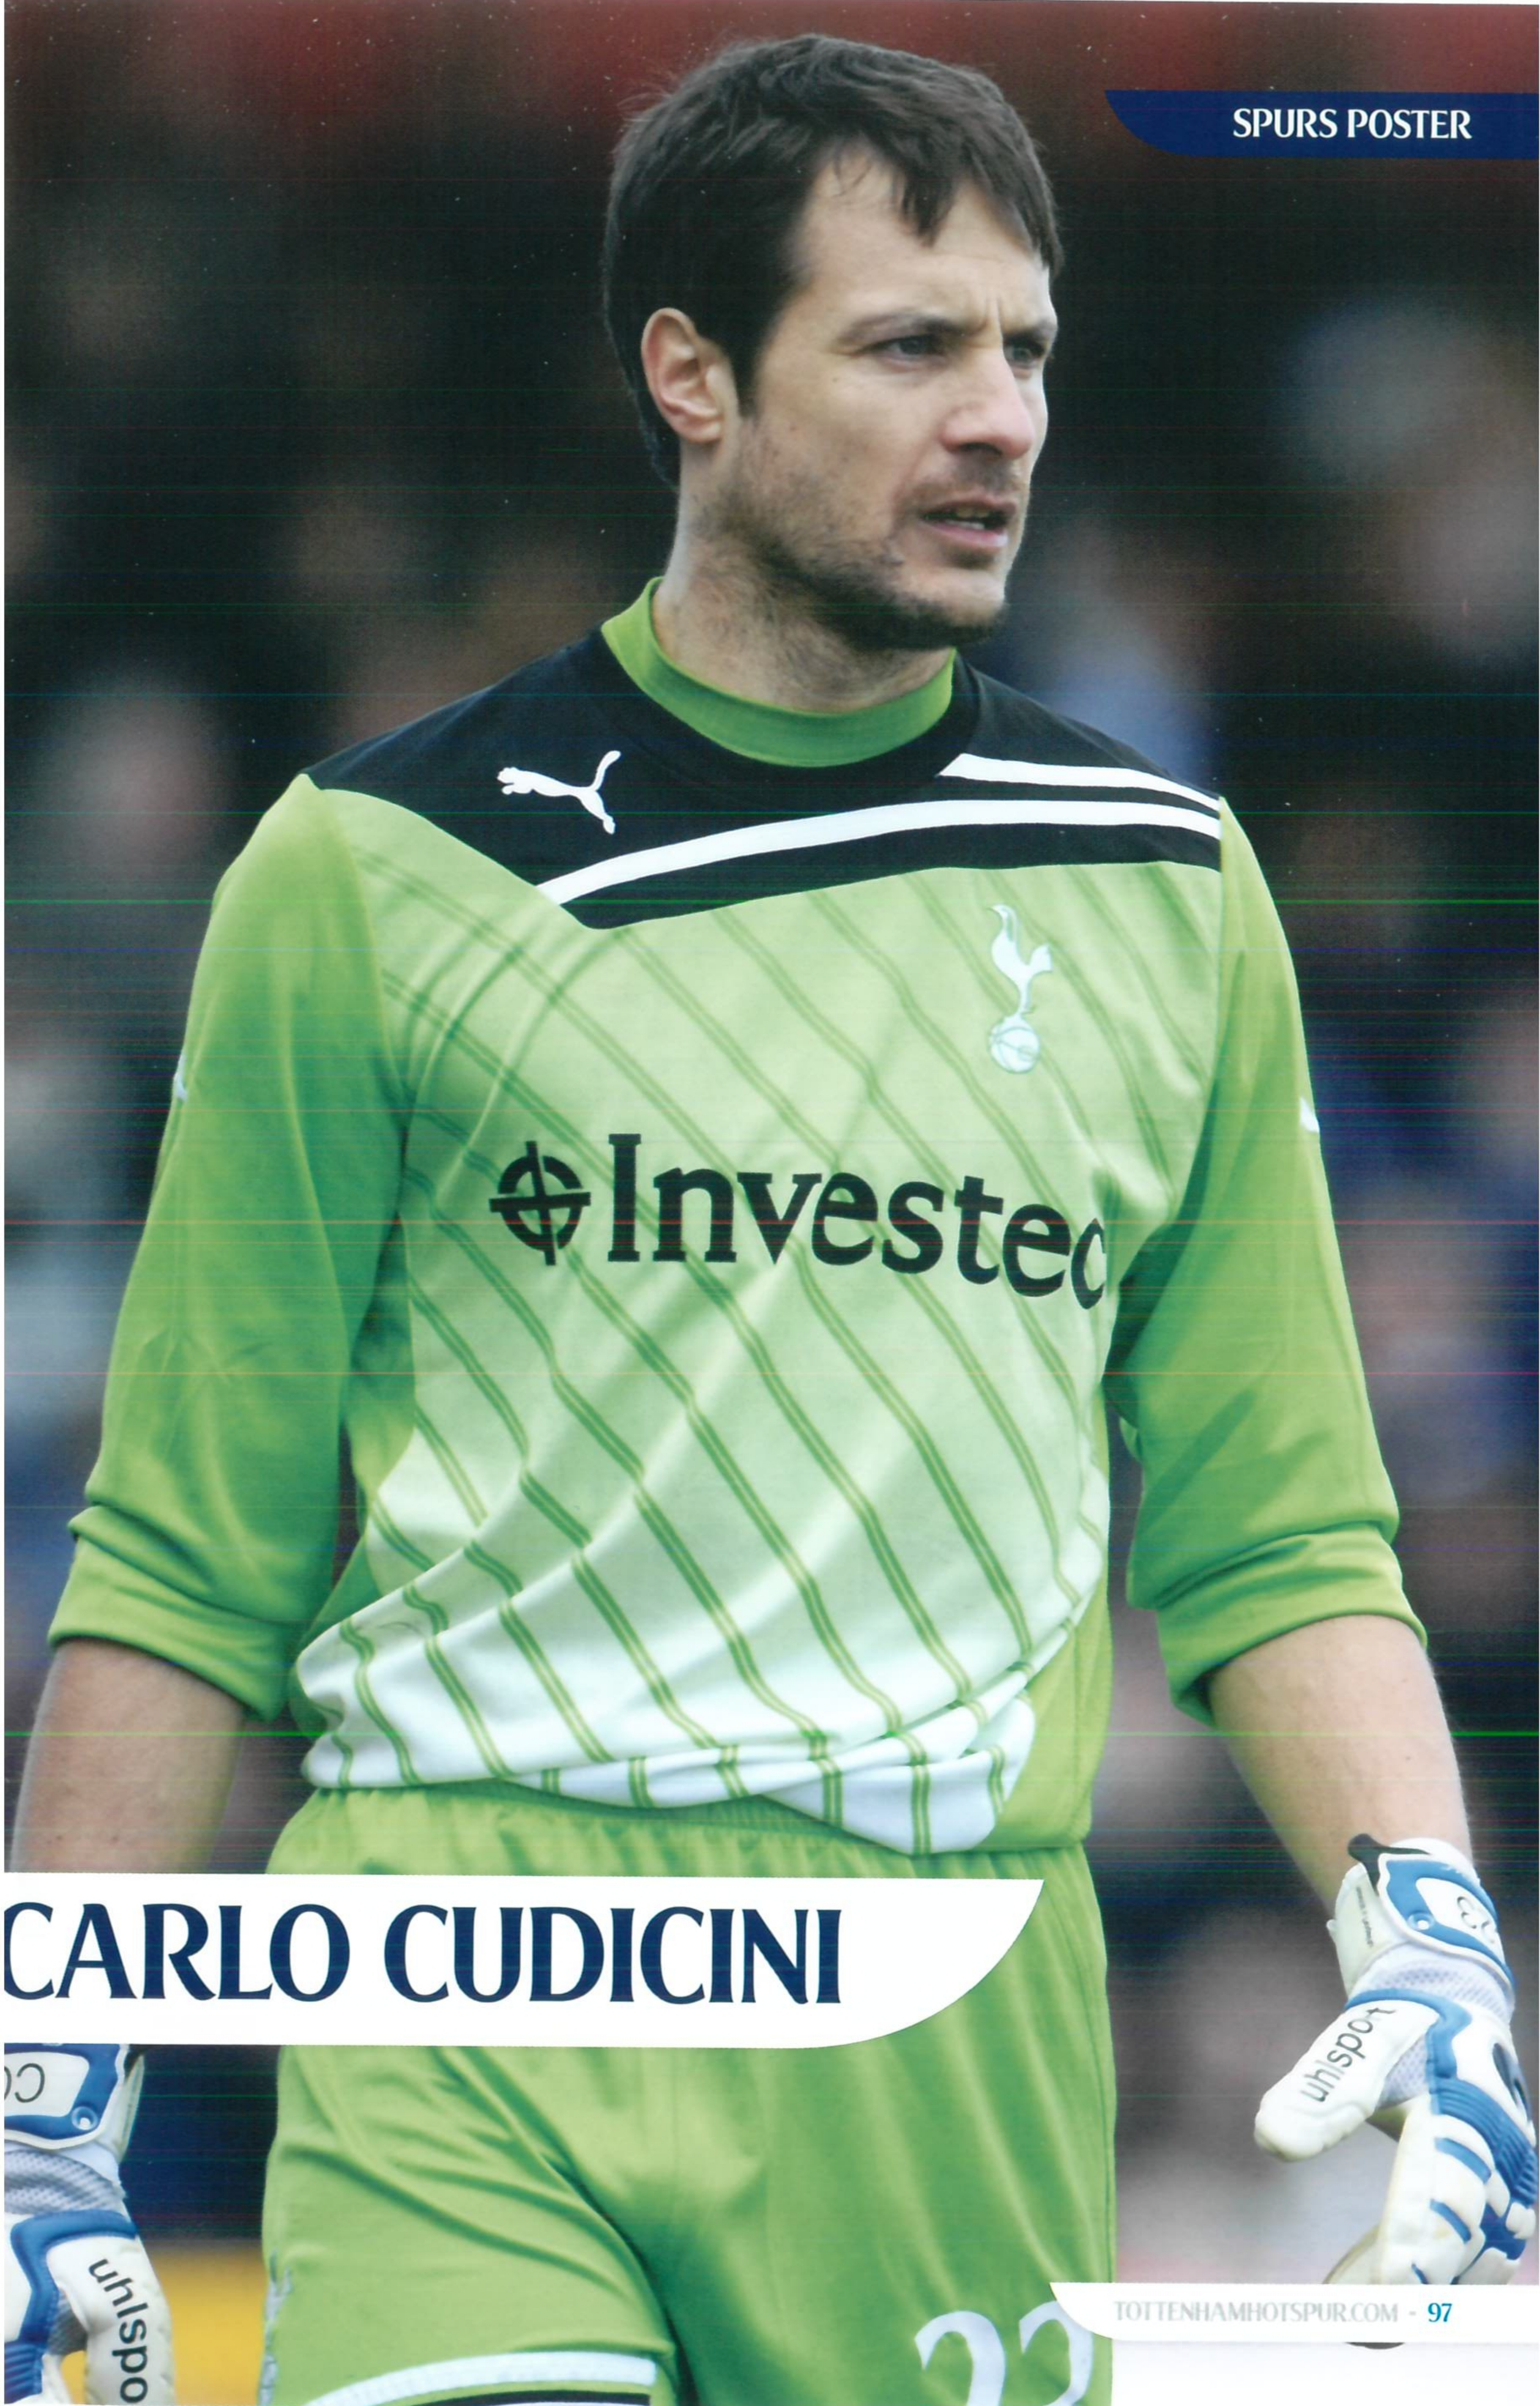

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.
